Lorraine M. Farrier Becomes Bride of Robert Lieswald

CHAMBERS—Before an altar decorated with tall baskets of lilac and white garden flowers at St. Paul's Lutheran church, Miss Lorraine Merle Farrier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Farrier of Chambers, became the bride of Robert Harold Lieswald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Lieswald of Chambers. The 2 p.m. doubling ceremony was performed Sunday, June 22, by Rev. William Roten, pastor.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a chantilly lace and tulle gown over a hand satin featuring a hand clipped lace yoke. Ballerina length, the bouffant skirt was graced by a lace panel. Her waist length veil of illusion fell from a ruffled hat of silk. She carried a white Bible, which was a gift from her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Emma Hardy. It was graced with a bouquet of white daisies and white ribbon. She wore pearl earrings, which were a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Shirley DeHart of Chambers was maid-of-honor. Little Misses Valerie and Dawn Clemens, nieces of the bride, were flowergirls. They wore dresses of lilac organza with matching headbands. They carried out the theme of the colors of the floral bouquets at the church with baskets of white and lilac flowers. Jerry Farrier, a brother of the bride, was ring bearer. He wore a white linen jacket and dark trousers. He carried a white satin pillow, which was made by his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Alma Farrier.

Larry Lieswald of Chambers, a cousin of the bridegroom, was bestman. Ushers were Harold Farrier of Grand Island, a brother of the bride, and Dean Wilkerson of Chambers. They and the bridegroom wore business suits and matching ties, which were a gift of the bridegroom.

The bride's mother wore navy shantung with navy and white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy and white crepe dress with navy accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages. Grandmother wore navy nylon dress with matching accessories. She had a pink carnation corsage.

Mrs. Elwyn Robertson, organist, accompanied Mrs. Ed Eissen. Mrs. Lyle Clemens sang "The Lord Is My Shepherd" and "The Lord's Prayer".

A reception for one hundred guests followed in the church parlors. Mrs. George Smith and Mrs. Merlin Grossnicklaus had charge of the gifts. Mrs. Lester Lieswald, an aunt of the bridegroom, cut the four-tier wedding cake, baked by the bride's mother and decorated by the bride and her sister, Mrs. Lyle Clemens. The cake was topped by love birds.

Pouring were Mrs. Clemens and Mrs. Harold Farrier of Grand Island, a sister-in-law of the bride. Serving were Mrs. Harold Dexter of Ewing and Mrs. Robert Beed. The bride's colors, lilac and green, were carried out.

For traveling the bride wore a two-piece toast colored linen dress with matching accessories. She had a removable corsage from her bouquet. The couple will live at Fremont.

Mrs. Lieswald is a graduate of Chambers high school, class of 1954, and attended Wayne State Teachers' college. She has taught rural schools near Chambers for four years.

Mr. Lieswald is a graduate of Chambers high school, class of 1951. He is employed by Chambers & Barton company of Fremont. Mr. Lieswald served four years in the marines as an enlistee, and is a veteran of the Korean war.

Matthew Beha, jr., has enrolled in pre-engineering at the University of Nebraska for summer courses.
