Marvene May Bride of Lynch Man in June Church Rite

LYNCH—Baskets of roses appointed the altar of Assumption Blessed Virgin Mary Catholic church of Lynch Tuesday evening, June 24, for the 6 o'clock double-ring ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Marvene May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward May of Monowi, and Robert Courtney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Courtney of Lynch. Rev. Karl Kucera of O'Neill officiated.

Miss Madlen Peklo, organist, played the wedding selections and accompanied Miss Janice Micanek as she sang "Ave Maria" and the "Wedding Prayer".

The bride, ushered to altar by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of rosepoint lace and tulle. The molded waistline and fitted bodice of rosepoint lace featured a sabrena neckline with sleeves tapering to a point over the wrist. Her skirt was of tulle with scalloped in-sets of rosepoint lace edged with double ruffles of tulle with an underlay skirt of net ruffles. Her double fingertip veil fell from a cap of net trimmed with pearls. She carried a heart shape bouquet of graduated American beauty roses, on a white prayer book, which was a gift from the bridegroom. Her bouquet featured white satin streamers trimmed with rosebuds and silver touched with.

The bride carried out the tradition of something old, something new, something borrowed, and a sixpence in her shoe.

The maid-of-honor was Mrs. Richard Courtney of Compton, Calif., sister-in-law of the bridegroom. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Dwight Micanek, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Clarence Koland, sister of the bridegroom. The maid-of-honor appeared in American beauty and the bridesmaids in turquoise identically styled dresses of crystalet with crossed ribbons in front, tying in back and tapering to the bottom of the street length dresses. Their matching head pieces were of net crowned with lily of the valley. They wore white gloves and carried bouquets of white carnations with white satin streamers.

Richard Courtney of Compton was bestman for his twin brother. Attendants were Dwayne May, brother of the bride, and Dwight Micanek, brother-in-law of the bride. The bridegroom and his attendants were attired in white jackets and midnight blue trousers and accessories. They wore turquoise carnation boutonniere.

The flowergirls were Penny Micanek, niece of the bride, and Marilyn Koland, niece of the bridegroom. They wore dresses of American beauty crystalette trimmed with matching satin sashes and collars. They wore headpieces of matching ruffled net trimmed with white flowers. They carried white plastic baskets with white satin streamers on the sides and dropped rose petals down the aisle.

Ringbearers were Lauri Dee Micanek, niece of the bride, and JoAnn Koland, niece of the bridegroom. They wore dresses and headpieces of turquoise identical to those worn by the flower girls and carried the rings on white satin pillows edged with lace and white satin ribbon.

Ushers were Robert Wilson and Clarence Koland.

The bride's mother chose a navy blue crepe and lace dress with pink accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a medium blue dress of acetate and nylon mesh with white accessories and both wore white carnation corsages.

A reception was held in the IOOF hall immediately after the wedding for 200 guests.

Mrs. Robert Wilson had charge of the guest book.

Mrs. Louise Nelson poured punch and Mrs. Fred May of Niobrara, aunt of the bride, poured coffee.

The wedding cake, which was a four-tier heart cake with five large heart cakes for the bottom, was decorated with roses, rose sprays, swans, lily of the valley border and topped with a heart and love birds, and served by the bride's two aunts, Mrs.

Lloyd Tuch of Verdel and Mrs. Joe Vitermia of Verdigris.

Serving the bridal table were Misses Mary Dahlberg, Dorothy Purviance, Glenna Courtney, and Mrs. Richard Hall. They wore heart shaped aprons of net with satin ties in the bride's chosen colors.

The bridal table was accented with a miniature ceramic bride doll, dressed like the bride made by Mrs. Richard Courtney; also by bouquets of American beauty roses, twist-to-lite candles and a streamer canopy with big white bell.

Assisting in the catering were Mesdames Frank Mulhair, jr., Harold Micanek, Harold McCole, Walter May, Howard Mayberry, Glen May, Clayton Thomson, and Faye Courtney.

Helping with the gifts were Mesdames Robert Wilson, Sidney Frahm, Elton Miller and William Bentz.

Mrs. Courtney is a graduate of Lynch high school and was graduated from the Electronic Radio - Television Institute of Omaha. She has been employed by Mutual of Omaha.

Mr. Courtney holds a diploma from Lynch high school, served four years in the air force and is now engaged in farming north of Lynch. After their wedding trip to the Black Hills, the couple will reside on a farm north of Lynch.

Out-of-town guests came from Spencer, Verdel, Niobrara, Verdigris, Wakefield, O'Neill, Randolph, Norfolk, Compton, Calif., Boston, Mass., Esconaba, Mich., Parkston, S.D., St. Louis, Mo., San Pablo, Calif., and Missoula, Mont.
