Robertson Clan in First Annual Reunion

Descendants of the late Mr. and Mrs. John A. Robertson, who were early settlers in the Joy community, north of O'Neill, gathered here Sunday for a family reunion. It is expected a reunion will be held each year in the future.

Children in the family were: Lottie, Elsie, George, Helen, Harriett, John, Sam, Ray, Rachel, Rebecca, James and Dick.

Mrs. Fred (Lottie) Weidman of Plainview died in 1942 and Dick O'Neill died about eight years ago.

Originally the reunion was scheduled for Sam's farm north of O'Neill, but plans were changed because of Sam's recent heart attack.

The clan gathered at George's residence in O'Neill for breakfast. Dinner at noon was served at an O'Neill restaurant.

The afternoon and evening were spent at Sam's farm home. Present were:

George C., his wife of O'Neill and their son, George T., his wife and daughters, Barbara, Joan and Betty of Benkelman.

Children of Mrs. Harry (Elsie) Anderson: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cote, Roberta, Jeff and Tommy of Tajunga, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson and daughter, Kay of Denver, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. Don Ewing, Dona and Kelly of Atlanta, Ga. Elsie could not be present because of ill health.

Mrs. Albert (Helen) Sundell of Wakefield, her husband and their children and families: Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Sundell and Sue Ellen of Wakefield; Rev. and Mrs. Lawrence Sundell and three sons of Burnside, Ia.

S. E. Robertson, his wife and their children and families: Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Robertson, Barbara and Don of O'Neill; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weiss and daughters, Patty and Marilyn, of Kansas City, Mo.; also the S. E. Robertson's granddaughters, Linda, Sandra and Annette Long, of Compton, Calif.

Mrs. E. C. (Harriett) McElhane and son, John, of Lincoln, and daughter, Mrs. Owen Brainard, her husband and daughter, Jane, all of Elwood. Mrs. McElhane's husband was killed a number of years ago in an auto accident.

James Robertson, his wife and their daughter, Linda, of Scottsbluff.

Ray Robertson, his wife and their son, George, and his wife of South Sioux City.

Mrs. Clarence (Rachel) Overton, and her husband of Alliance.

Mrs. Ralph (Rebecca) Ernst, her husband and their son, John, and wife of Manhattan, Kans.; also Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hendrick and son, Bobbie, and daughter, Becky, of McPherson, Kans.

Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Don Clemens and three children of McPherson, Kans. Clemens is the daughter of the late Mrs. Fred Weidman, the former Lottie Robertson.

The Cote, Ewing and Anderson families were Saturday dinner guests of the George Robertsons.

The Reverend Sundell was master-of-ceremonies and it was voted to make the reunion an annual affair.

Mrs. Cote and children remained in Nebraska for a longer visit. The Cotes had flown here from California.

John, another son of the pioneer couple, was unable to be present. He lives at San Jose, Calif.
