

Uniform Fund Drive 'Most Successful'

The Page Midgets boast a record of 10 wins compared to no losses.

Wednesday, July 9, they defeated Ewing, 2-1, at Ewing, Sunday they defeated Orchard, 6-5, in a thriller at Page.

Last night (Wednesday) they played O'Neill under the lights at O'Neill.

Harold Melcher and Lloyd Cork manage the team. Clair Parks and Freddie Cronk are the pitchers. They alternate as catchers. Both are 15-years-old and will graduate to Junior Legion baseball next year.

There are 14 on the team which is equipped with nifty uniforms.

Both Page and O'Neill are entered in the Legion's district II class B Midget tourney at Plainview next week.

On Tuesday at 4 p.m., O'Neill will play the winner of the earlier Osmond-Egion game. That evening at 8 o'clock Page will bump into Plainview.

Semifinals will be played Wednesday and finals next Thursday. O'Neill's Legion team will face Creighton at 4 p.m., Monday in the Legion-sponsored Junior tourney. Semifinals will be played Wednesday; finals Thursday.

Eye-Screening Comes to Close

The Holt County Extension clubs have completed the eye screening program in Holt county. Cards have been sent to the parents of children who need further eye examinations.

Nearly two thousand boys and girls were screened. Of this number, about 450 indicated that a further check on the eyes would be in order.

The activity was carried on by the Holt county home extension council and the North-Central Optometric association.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schlote and Mr. and Mrs. William Schlote of Oconto visited a few hours with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Strong. The Schlotes were on their way to Pierce to visit another sister, Mrs. Caroline Christensen, who is ill. Fred and William Schlote are brothers of Mrs. Strong.

Dance, Roast, Raid on Refrigerator Included

DORSEY—A dance at Ash Grove, a rained out weiner roast and ice box raid all went into making an evening of fun for the guests of Ruth Osborn at her slumber party Saturday, July 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Osborn and Ruth met the girls at Lynch and took them to the dance. Noel Woods, Leroy Hill, John Weeder, Pat Mahon, Billy Rosicky and Harold Osborn took the group to the Osborn home following the dance. Upon arrival they decided to have a weiner roast. However, the affair was rained out.

To keep up tradition, the girls tried staying awake all night, but not all succeeded. After attending church in the morning, they had a pancake breakfast prepared by Mrs. Osborn and Ruth's sister.

In the afternoon the girls sang, played the piano, and played horse shoe and then proceeded to the Carsons where they had a game of volley ball.

Returning to Lynch the girls attended the show.

Cyclist Hurdled Over Top of Car

Larry Lichty, 20, of Brunswick was injured seriously Sunday afternoon when his motorcycle collided with a car driven by Roy Goskey, 52, of Orchard on the viaduct west of Brunswick.

Lichty suffered severe back injuries, head injuries, multiple contusions, abrasions, lacerations and possible internal injuries. He is listed as "critical" in Antelope Memorial hospital.

Both the Ryan of O'Neill and the motorcycle were travelling south on state highway 14. Lichty said he turned his head to see where his cattle were. When he turned his back, he found himself on top of the Goskey car. Lichty hit the car in the back and was thrown from the motorcycle over the car and struck the hood of the car.

Patrolman A.C. Knottwell investigated the accident and reports approximately $400 damage to the automobile.

Truck Smacks Car in Rear

Two vehicles figured in a highway accident at 3:10 p.m., Sunday at a point 1 1/2 miles west of the O'Neill Drive-in theater.

Joanne Shoemaker, driving a westbound 1950 Chevrolet, was attempting to make a left-hand turn into the driveway at the Roy Wayman farm. Her machine was struck from behind by westbound 1955 model Diamond T semi-truck being driven by John Kanzler, jr., of Whitney.

State Highway Patrolman Robert Gude said about $200 damage was done to the Shoemaker car and about $300 damage to the truck. The truck, Gude said, went out of control and struck a Consumers Public Power district pole on the right-hand side.

Richard Wilkinson of Chambers was shaken Sunday about 1 p.m., in a one-car mishap three miles south of O'Neill. His southbound car went off the right side of the highway and crossed to the left before wrecking. He was hospitalized overnight.

A minor car accident occurred on Sunday at the intersection of Fifth and East Douglas highways, vehicles operated by Laura L. Meyers of O'Neill and Lester Waterman of Page.

churches and have a higher cultural level than the other Arabic countries. Some of the rebels are violently loyal to their leaders who arrange to feed them once or twice a year.

Farming is primitive in Lebanon, Jim declares. His own family owns no machinery. Tracts are too small to warrant machinery.

Jim said when he was in the young republic's army it numbered 9,000 men. The country then (1949-1953) was in the process of building an air force with U. S. equipment. Lebanon has no navy.

Most of the Christians in Lebanon are Maronites (representing 377,000 of the country's 700,000 Christians). Jim considers himself a Maronite. Other Christian groups are Roman Catholic, Greek Orthodox and Armenian.

On the other side of the ledger are the Druses, Sunnites and Shites. The Moslem block represents about 400,000 people.

Jim generally blames the Druses for most of the current trouble.

Lebanon is about 50 miles wide and 100 miles long.

"Not much larger than Holt county," he mustered. "But there are a lot more people."

Jim is sweating out his U. S. citizenship. Abdou already has been made a citizen.

Meanwhile, at least one marine from the O'Neill area is believed in Beirut. He is Sgt. Harold Dexter, son of Mrs. Richard (Olive) Tomlinson. It was Dexter's Sixth division that landed Tuesday in Lebanon. Dexter's wife is the former Kathryn Ann Hoffmann.

Other Amelia News

Mrs. Floyd Adams returned home Wednesday, July 2, from visit with her sister, Mrs. Burton Kiltz, at Arlington, Va. Mr. and Mrs. Kiltz, their daughter, Beverly, and son, Max, and his wife brought Mrs. Adams home. The Kiltzes attended the wedding of their son, Gerald (Jerry) in Omaha Saturday, June 28, returning to their home in Virginia immediately following the wedding.

County Levy Drop Is Predicted

The Holt county supervisors met Tuesday and pondered the budget for the new fiscal year and allowed routine claims.

Valuations for railroads fixed by the state tax commissioner's office have not yet been received. The Chicago & North Western railroad will enjoy nearly a one-million dollar decrease in valuation in this state, and this decrease will be reflected here. The Burlington also will receive a decrease.

County officials indicate the levy for county government purpose will be decreased slightly, but this is not official. Budget hearings will be held July 20. Valuation of real and personal property is up 1 1/2-million-dollars compared to a year ago.

DISTRICT COURT
