

Potter-Thramer Nuptials in Omaha

EWING—Miss Rita Marie Potter became the bride of Albin Eugene Thramer at an 11 o'clock ceremony at St. John's Catholic church.

Rev. A. J. Wilwering officiated. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Lee Roy Potter of Omaha. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albin P. Thramer of Ewing.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Joseph Sonntag, wore a floor-length gown of rose-point lace in a delicate rose pattern over summer taffeta. The bodice was styled with a Sabrina scalloped neckline in seed pearls and buttoned at the back with small lace buttons and loops. Long lace sleeves had the traditional bridal points at the wrists. A very bouffant skirt featured wide bands of the scalloped lace applied on tulle forming deep points at the sides, falling over a net ruffled skirt and worn over stiffened petticoats.

She wore a flattering queen's crown of solid seed pearls, with a full circular veil of imported illusion. The bride carried a cascade bouquet of a white orchid with white carnations.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Owen Kruse of Norfolk, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Dorothy Harlan of Tilden, and Miss Patricia Bantner of Omaha. Miss Mary Agnes Thramer, another sister of the bridegroom, was junior bridesmaid. They wore gowns that were styled identical to that of the matron-of-honor in blue and pink.

The attendants carried colonial bouquets of pink and white carnations. Miss Karen Thramer, a niece of the bridegroom was flower girl.

Gregory Thramer of Santa Barbara, Calif., brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Roy Potter of Omaha, brother of the bride, Max Thramer of Spaulding, and James Thramer of Kalspell, Mont., brothers of the bridegroom, Wayne Finken, and Owen Kruse.

A dinner, reception and dance was held at the German American club. After a short wedding trip, the couple will live in Omaha.
