Jeanine Johnson, Verne Hickok Wed in Atkinson Rite

ATKINSON—Two large baskets of gladoli in fall colors and candleabra decorated First Presbyterian church of Atkinson for the ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Jeanine Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sewell Johnson of Atkinson, and Verne Hickok, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Hickok of Atkinson.

Rev. Curtis Barnett of Atkinson officiated at the 3 p.m. double-rite on Sunday, August 24.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a princess style dress which featured contrasting gores of reversible silk cristalette of cream and gold in the skirt. The dress had a scooped neckline and a bow in the back with streamers extending to the hem. She carried a bouquet of bronze and yellow poms accented with gold ribbon and black net. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Elaine Shorn accompanied Miss Audrey Coxhill as she sang "Lord's Prayer" and "O, Perfect Love."

Miss Karen Johnson was maid-of-honor for her sister. She was gowned in a sandy brown cristalette dress that featured a bateau neckline and a flared skirt with large bows on each side of it. Both the maid-of-honor and the bride wore crowns fashioned of net in their colors. The maid-of-honor carried a bouquet similar to that of the bride.

Bill Richardson of Denver, Colo., was bestman. The bridegroom and his attendant were attired in brown suits.

Dean McConnell and Richard Olson of Denver and Bernard Luben of Atkinson were ushers.

Mrs. Sewell Johnson chose a rose dress with black accessories for her daughter's wedding. She wore a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. E. V. Hickok, mother of the bridegroom, wore a grey dress trimmed in white and she had a corsage of yellow flowers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Presbyterian church for one hundred and fifty guests. The reception was served by the Presbyterian ladies society.

The wedding cake, baked and decorated with yellow roses and wedding bells by Mrs. Lowell Johnson of O'Neill, aunt of the bride, was the center piece for the reception table.

Mrs. Hickok holds a diploma from Atkinson high school and attended Wayne State Teachers college for two years. She also attended Mary Lanning School of Technology. She is a medical technologist and is employed at Children's Memorial hospital at Denver.

Mr. Hickok also graduated from Atkinson high school and his occupation is a diesel machinist. He is employed by the Burlington railroad.

The couple is taking a wedding trip to the mountains of Colorado. On their return they will be at home in Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Horner and children spent the week visiting friends in Lexington.

Navy Men Home for Leaves

Mr. and Mrs. Don Enright and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Holly met their sons, Jim Enright and Get Holly and also Darrel Dexter and Tom Donohoe in Omaha last Thursday. The boys have completed boot training in San Diego, Calif., and will leave with the Enrights and Hollies for Omaha next Sunday.

Each is to report to a different school. Jack Sullivan and Jim Murphy of Stuart will report to Oklahoma. The others will report in California and Jim Enright will report aboard ship.

James Enright, Thomas Donohoe, Gary Holly and James McGinn were guests Tuesday and Wednesday of Jim Liewer in Crofton.

Leaves for Home

Mrs. Fred Baker of Spencer and Mrs. Ernie Coleman of Ontario, Ore., were shopping in O'Neill Monday. Mrs. Coleman who has been visiting relatives here, left Wednesday morning, via Grand Island for her home.

Auxiliary to Meet

The next meeting of the American Legion auxiliary members will be Wednesday evening, September 3, as announced by Mrs. Verne Reynoldson, president.

Registration Sept. 2 at Public School

Registration will begin at 9 a.m., Tuesday for all students desiring to enroll in the O'Neill public school.

All high school students will assemble in the auditorium for a brief orientation.

Grade school students will report directly to the grades they will be in for the 1938-39 school year.

After registration is completed, all students will be dismissed. It should be no later than noon. On Wednesday, school will convene at 8:45 a.m., and all classes will be held. Each class will be 15 minutes in length. All students will be dismissed at noon.

Thursday will mark the first full day of school.

All students from outside district 7 are instructed to bring their free high school tuition card. The cards, Supt. M. J. Baack said, must be in the office no later than Friday, September 5.

A new student insurance plan will be offered with a Nebraska company providing payment of doctor, surgeon, hospital and nursing bills up to $3,500 per injury. The plan provides protection of children to, from and in school.

Premium is $150 for grade students and $2 for high school students.

Miss Ramm Earns Graduate Hours

Miss Alvira Ramm, vocal instructor at the O'Neill public school, recently attended the Paul Christianen choral school, which is a summer course for choral directors at the University of Denver (Colo.).

The course included the following subjects: voice, choir organization, high school choral problems, church choir problems, elementary and junior high school problems, rehearsals, conducting and interpretation, madrigals, and seminar sessions.

Diplomas were issued upon the completion of the course and graduate hours were earned.

Mrs. Quig Hostess

Wednesday Mrs. Lulu Quig was hostess to the RSS club.

5 Teachers Set At Bristow School

BRISTOW—The Bristow schools will have five teachers this year. The grade school teachers are: Lower grade room—Mrs. Frank Bruegman; upper grade room—Mrs. Marvin Peterson.

The high school teachers are: Superintendent—Harry A. Moore of Kansas City, Kans.; principal—Gerald O. Abraham of Elk Point, S. D., and Miss Dolores A. VanHove of Bristow, who will also help teach in junior high.

Subjects definitely offered are general science, algebra, geometry, typing, world history, American literature, English, general shop and agriculture (which are combined).

Physical education, basketball and glee club will also be offered to the students.

The school building has been recently cleaned and redecorated and new flooring has now been laid throughout the entire area. Last year all new modern desks were purchased for the grade school, including teachers' desks. This year the high school desks were refinished and new bookcases are being built in the various rooms. New bulletin boards have been put in all class rooms.

The board of education is definitely interested in offering a well-rounded program with qualified teachers. It also is endeavoring to maintain standards set up by the state department of education.

School begins Monday, September 1, with registration. School will be dismissed by noon on the first day.

The board of education invites all parents and students to visit the school.

Mrs. Mary Wetzler and Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Wetzler of Verdigre visited in Omaha with the former's son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Wetzler, from Wednesday, August 20 until Friday.
