Ermels - Nashlund Nuptials Are Read

PAGE—The Christ Memorial church at Bloomfield was the scene of the wedding of Miss Lorraine Ermels and Donald A. Nashlund at 7:30 Sunday, September 7.

Rev. Stanley Ganzel, pastor, officiated in the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Vaughn of Bloomfield and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nashlund of Page.

The bride appeared in a light blue nylon knit street dress. Her corsage was a bronze baby orchid.

Mrs. Vivian Benner of Sioux City, sister of the bride, was matron-of-honor. She wore a dark green suit with black accessories and she had a white carnation corsage.

Jerry White of Sioux City nephew of the bridegroom was bestman.

A reception and supper were given at the home of Mrs. La Vonne Vaughn.

The wedding cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Walter Doering and cut and served by Mrs. Virgil Maas.

The bride received her education at Bloomfield. The bridegroom is a graduate of the Page high school and at present is manager of the Council Oak store at Pierce.

Following the reception the couple left for the West coast on a wedding trip. They will be at home at Pierce after September 22.

Two Young Ladies Leave for Novitiate

Miss Cecilia Ann Arbuthnot, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Arbuthnot, left Friday to enter the novitiate of the Sisters of St. Francis of Penance and Christian Charity in Denver, Colo. Miss Arbuthnot is a graduate of St. Mary's academy.

She was the winner of a national merit scholarship. She will take advantage of her scholarship this fall and will attend college at the Marycrest Motherhouse of the Franciscan Sisters.

Miss Jude Ryan, daughter of Neil Ryan, left Saturday to enter the same novitiate. For the past four years, Miss Ryan has been a student at the Marycrest aspirant school in Alliance. She is a 1938 graduate from this school and will also begin her college work this September.

Both will be postulants for one year. During this time they will attend college as any other student along with learning the fundamental essentials of religious life. Next August they will receive the habit of the Franciscan Sister and for two years they will be novices. At the end of this period they will make their profession of vows.

Miss Sharon Miner Becomes Bride of Norman G. Klasna

The sanctuary of the First Methodist church was the setting, Friday, September 5, for the 2 p.m. wedding of Miss Sharon Vir Jean Miner and Norman G. Klasna of Spencer.

Rev. Glen Kenton, pastor, officiated in a double-ring ceremony.

Baskets of pink fall flowers and seven branch candelabra with pink candles decorated the chancel for the service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Miner of O'Neill and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Klasna of Spencer.

George Hartman, soloist, sang "I Love You Truly," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." Miss Connie Kurtz was his accompanist and played the wedding music.

The bride approached the altar on the arm of her father. She appeared in a gown of imported hand clipped chantilly lace and misty nylon tulle over slipper satin.

The full bouffant skirt with alternate ruffles of pleated tulle and lace at the front and a cutaway lace overskirt fell into a graceful chapel train. A matching lace capulet with drop pearls at the front held her fingertip veil of imported silk illusion and she carried a cascade bouquet of white feathered carnations having a built in corsage and ivory streamers.

She wore a pearl necklace and earrings, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried out the old tradition of something old, something new, something blue and she had a penny in her shoe.

The maid-of-honor was Miss Marde Johnson of O'Neill. Bridesmaids were the Misses Betty Schultz, Ethel Oltjen and Ethel Kinney. They appeared in ballerina gowns of pink lace over Siamese pink taffeta. They featured fitted bodices, were full skirted with pink lace overskirts had Siamese pink cummerbunds, wide sashed, ending at the hem line. They wore veiled pink feathered hats and carried cascades of feathered pink carnations.

Little Miss Kathy Lynn Sorensen, cousin of the bride, was flowergirl. Her gown was a fitted bodice, full skirted Siamese pink taffeta with a net over skirt. She wore a veiled flower trimmed headband and carried a basket of shaded pink mums and garden flowers.

The bridegroom was attired in a white dinner jacket and black trousers with a white carnation boutonniere. Carl Friedrich of Spencer acted as bestman. Dennis Edwards, Russell Miner and Dennis Kinney served as groomsmen. Russell is the brother of the bride. The others were the bridegroom's fraternity brothers. All were attired identically to the bridegroom.

Dan Roberts of Atkinson and Merle Jensen of Spencer ushered and lighted the tapers.

The mother of the bride chose a dress fashioned with a fitted bodice, full skirted navy cupon model with a white collar for her daughter's wedding. Her accessories were black. Her corsage was pink feathered carnations.

The bridegroom's mother wore a powder blue linen ensemble with white accessories.

The bride's paternal grandmother, Mrs. Leo Miner of Ravenna, wore a navy blue novelty weave silk dress with white accessories.

Both Mrs. Klasna and Mrs. Lee Miner's corsages matched their accessories.

Following the ceremony a reception for 250 guests was held at the American legion auditorium. The gifts.

hall was decorated in shades of pink.

A three-tier wedding cake topped with miniature bride and bridegroom and decorated with white bells and pink roses graced the serving table. Mrs. Clayton Klasna and Darlene Friedrich, aunt and friend of the bridegroom, poured.

Mrs. Ron Meyer, aunt of the bride cut and served the wedding cake.

Waitresses were the Misses Jeanette Fricke, Sharon Marcelus, Connie Kurtz and Carolyn Schmichele.

Mrs. Le Roy Holcomb and Mrs. Soren Sorensen, jr., aunt and cousin of the bride, had charge of Mrs. Robert Evans presided over the guest book.

The reception was given by the bride's parents with the Nebr-Belles in charge of the arrangements.

For travel, the bride chose a gray and red plaid sheath dress with a cowl collar. Her accessories were red.

Following a wedding trip through the Black Hills, the couple will be at home at Oak Ridge, Ore., after September 15.

The bride is a graduate of the O'Neill high school and attended the University of Nebraska. She also had employment at Lincoln.

braska. He is a student and has employment in Oregon in the state highway department of engineering.

Out-of-town guests attended from Atkinson, Bristow, Butte, Chambers, Elgin, Dakota City, Madison, Page and Spencer.

Out-of-state guests were Mr. and Mrs. Don Gibson of Houston, Tex., and Joan Dray of New York City. Mrs. Ron Meyer of Ravenna is enroute to Germany to join her husband in service there.
