Eat A Good Breakfast—Have A Better Day

Nutritionists agree the most important meal of the day is breakfast. It is the meal that starts you off on the right swing of activity to keep you going all day. Piping-hot biscuits are wonderful with other breakfast foods, especially when spread with this Imperial Crumble-Crisp Bacon Spread.

But then Imperial by itself is a real treat with its real natural taste and flavor—a tribute to gracious living. Try all these variations on your morning wake-up breads.

PECAN SPREAD
1 bar Imperial margarine
1/2 cup brown sugar, packed
1/2 cup chopped pecans

Let margarine soften in mixing bowl, then cream well with mixing spoon. Drain on paper towels. Crumble bacon and add to margarine, blending thoroughly. Yield: about 1 1/2 cups.

CRUMBLE-CRISP BACON SPREAD
1/2 lb. margarine
1/2 lb. bacon

Let margarine soften in mixing bowl, then cream well with mixing spoon. Fry bacon until crisp. Drain on paper towels. Crumble bacon and add to margarine, blending thoroughly. Yield: about 3/4 cup. An excellent spread on piping-hot corn muffins or corn bread.

3 Holt Entries in Sioux City Contest

Ranchers, Irrigation Farmer Cited

Two ranchers and one irrigation farmer were chosen to represent the Holt Soil and Water Conservation District in the Sioux City permanent agriculture program. This contest is sponsored jointly by the Sioux City Journal and Chamber of Commerce.

Holt winners will compete in area competition. This judging will be done sometime in September. The local district board has picked its county winners from cooperators who have not previously represented the district in previous contests.

The local winners are Claude and Gene Lierman of Amelia, E. O. Slaymaker and Elmer Vogel of Stuart and Frank Murphy of Stuart.

The Liermans have done a great deal of work such as tree planting, wildlife area improvement, blow control, deferred grazing and proper use of their ranges. Elmer Vogel has all of his cropland seeded to grass or grass and legumes, has rested some of his pastures and is properly stocking his ranges. He has also cooperated with the Extension Service in production testing and as a result of culling and plenty of grass has been doing a lot in increasing his calf weight.

Last year over 20% of his calves weighed over 500 pounds at weighing time. Some of these calves were sold to a feeder in Iowa who has kept a record of gains on them in the feed lot and they may be sold to a packer where dressing percentages can be recorded for each calf. They have also purchased several bulls from Fort Robinson that have production records available.

Frank Murphy is doing a very good job in irrigation and has developed a good corn-alfalfa rotation. He raises a number of hogs and feeds them on irrigated pasture.

The following composed the committee of judges: Clarence Ernst, Paul Krugman and Elmer Juracek of O'Neill, M. G. French, sr., and Harry Harper of Page and Walter Fick of Inman.

The board of supervisors wish to congratulate each of these cooperators for a conservation job well done.

The Sioux City Chamber of Commerce and Journal sponsor a recognition day and banquet for all participants in north eastern Nebraska, south eastern South Dakota, south western Minnesota and north western Iowa which will be held at the Sioux City auditorium in early November.
