Miss Janice Menkens a September Bride

Rev. Glenn C. Kennicott performed the double-ring marriage ceremony uniting Miss Janice La Fern Menkens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Menkens of Emmet, and Leo Alden Tyrrell of Lincoln. The rites took place at 2 p.m., Saturday, September 6, at the First Methodist church in O'Neill.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Dean Klinebott of Orchard, wore a floor-length gown of white nylon lace and nylon tulle over slipper satin. It featured a fitted bodice with a scalloped waistline and neckline and dropped waists. The skirt was full and had the traditional lace sleeves that came to a point at the wrists. The skirt was full with inserts of white lace. Her fingertip veil was held by a small crown. She carried a bouquet of white colonial mums.

Miss Janice Menkens, sister of the bride, was the maid-of-honor. Mrs. Seger, the bridegroom's mother, appeared in a beige tulle gown with a slight drape in front. Her hat was forest green and her accessories were black. Her corsage was yellow roses.

A reception in the church fellowship hall followed the ceremony.

Bestman for the bridegroom was William Mersch of Aurora. Fred Dunn and Larry Mitchell, both of Atkinson, and John Relfschneider of Lincoln were groomsmen. Guests were seated by Carl Friedrich of Spencer and Bill Moderan of Aurora.

Mrs. Dickey, the bride's mother, chose a dark chateau-style tulle gown, tulip styled with matching hat and shoes. Her corsage was bronze roses.

Mrs. Seger, the bridegroom's mother, appeared in a beige tulle gown with a slight drape in front. Her hat was forest green and her accessories were black. Her corsage was yellow roses.

The church was decorated with baskets of gladioli in lavender and yellow.

Miss Bonnie Banks of Inman sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer." The traditional wedding march and other organ music was played by Mrs. Harold Lindberg of O'Neill. Fifty people were present.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the church parlors, which were decorated in yellow and lavender, matching the bride's table.

Mrs. Tyrrell attended high school at Butte and is employed at the Harding Creamery in O'Neill.

Mr. Tyrrell attended Pender high school. He is a senior at the University of Nebraska.

For going away, the bride wore a black silk figured sheath with black accessories.

Following a wedding trip to parts of Western Nebraska and the Black Hills, the couple will make their home at 650 Starr St. Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allendorfer and two children arrived Sunday for a three-day visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Allendorfer, and Mrs. Allendorfer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wells of Bristow. Bob is working for the Graystone Dairies and his wife is employed at the Tower restaurant, 78th and Dodge, Omaha.

Miss Kay Gregory Bride of O'Neill in Evening Rites

Miss Kay Gregory, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Dickey of Scottsbluff, became the bride of Gene Seger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Seger of O'Neill, in a candlelight ceremony Monday evening, September 8, at Scottsbluff.

The 8 o'clock double-ring ceremony was performed in First Methodist church by Rev. Richard E. Carlson.

Candles were lighted by Mark Johnson of Omaha and Jerry Clark of Scottsbluff. Miss Myrna Grunwald of St. Joseph, Mo., sang "Oh Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because." Mrs. William French was organist.

The bride's formal gown was created from satin and Alencon lace in the empire style. Features were a sabbina neckline, long sleeves and a full train. Her fingertip veil cascaded from a half hat which was trimmed with pearls. She carried a cascade of stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Mayrene Maxwell of Scottsbluff was maid-of-honor. She appeared in a gown of brown crystals over a tulle. Bridesmaids Mary Jane Wilhite of Nebraska City and Trudy Jarvis of Sioux Falls, S.D., were sorority sisters of the bride, wore gowns of burnt orange crystal over tulle. The attendants had matching accessories and bouquets of bronze spider chrysanthemums.

Mary Johnson of Omaha was junior bridesmaid and Ranae Davis of Junction City, Kans., served as flowergirl. The rings were carried by Billy Arnold.

Bestman for the bridegroom was William Mersch of Aurora. Fred Dunn and Larry Mitchell, both of Atkinson, and John Relfschneider of Lincoln were groomsmen. Guests were seated by Carl Friedrich of Spencer and Bill Moderan of Aurora.

Mrs. Dickey, the bride's mother, chose a dark chateau-style tulle gown, tulip styled with matching hat and shoes. Her corsage was bronze roses.

Mrs. Seger, the bridegroom's mother, appeared in a beige tulle gown with a slight drape in front. Her hat was forest green and her accessories were black. Her corsage was yellow roses.

A reception in the church fellowship hall followed the ceremony.
