Snells, Snyders to Note Anniversaries

PAGE—Two wedding anniversaries of note will be observed during the forthcoming week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Snell will be noting the third year of their marriage Friday, September 19. Mrs. Snell is in the O'Neill hospital and Mr. Snell has not been in his usual state of good health the past week. The strain of caring for his wife, even though he has had help, is telling on his strength.

Mr. and Mrs. Snell were married at O'Neill September 19, 1895. They made the trip by lumber wagon—a new one purchased for the occasion and for future use. Road conditions were such that it required the team a full day to make the trip. Without fanfare, showers or celebrations, they took up their married life in his bachelor quarters northwest of Page. He is 86; she is 83.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snyder will observe their 60th wedding anniversary Sunday, September 21, at Fellowship hall following the morning services at the Methodist church. A basket dinner will be served at noon for the relatives followed by an open-house observance from 2:30 to 5 o'clock.

Their granddaughter, Mrs. Tom Sinnard of Grand Island, will be in charge of arrangements, and the members of the W.S.C.S. will form the serving committee and be in charge of the kitchen arrangements.

The Snyders were married at Tecumseh in 1878 and attended the state fair at Lincoln at their wedding trip.
