

Viona Marie Burgett
Bride of Jerry Cuddy

St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill was the setting for the wedding of Miss Viona Marie Burgett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Burgett of Amelia and Jerry J. Cuddy of Minneapolis, Minn. The double-ring ceremony was performed at 10 a.m., Monday, September 15, by Rev. Robert Duffy. The altar was decorated with chrysanthemums of various fall colors.

Leo O'Malley sang and Miss Jeri Cody was accompanist.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a floor-length gown of Rochelle lace over taffeta with a fitted bodice which featured tiny lace buttons down the front and a scalloped neckline. Long sleeves tapered to bridal points over the wrists. The full skirt had three flounces of lace with a show tulle ruffles in the back. The bride's veil was ballerina length trimmed in lace to match the gown. It was held by a tiara trimmed in sequins and tiny pearls.

Her bouquet was of streamers white carnations with blue feathered. Her only jewelry was a string of pearls, a gift from her mother. The bride carried out the old tradition of something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue and a penny in her shoe.

Miss Lonnie Langan was maid-of-honor. Miss Catherine Cuddy of Gordon, sister-of-the-bridegroom, and Miss Eileen Osborn were bridesmaids. Their dresses were identical floor length blue nylon chiffon with bodices of misty nylon lace. They wore tiny white nylon hats with veils and carried bouquets of feathered carnations.

Patsy Burke of Gordon, niece of the bridegroom, and Joyce Harlan of Bassett, cousin of the bride, were flowergirls. They wore identical dresses of white taffeta with lace overskirts and matching headbands of blue flowers. They carried nosegays of white flowers.

Edward Cuddy, best man and groomsmen were Terry Burgett of Ewing and Wayne Wanser, brother of the bride. The ushers were Levi Harlan of Bassett, uncle of the bride, and Terry Wanser.

The bridegroom and his attendants wore dark business suits and had carnation boutonnieres.

The bride's mother chose a navy lace over taffeta dress with blue accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue dress with pink accessories. They both had corsages of white carnations. The grandmother of the bride wore gray with black accessories. She also had a carnation corsage.

Following the wedding, a reception was given at the Legion hall in O'Neill, by the bride's parents. In the evening a wedding dance was held at the Amelia hall.

Mrs. Cuddy attended school at Chambers and up until recently has been employed as a telephone operator by the Northwestern Bell Telephone company in O'Neill.

Mr. Cuddy attended St. Mary's academy in O'Neill and has been working as a display man for Gambles in Minneapolis, Minn.

For traveling, the bride chose a beige cotton knit chemise dress with brown accessories.

After a wedding trip to the Black Hills, the couple will make their home in Minneapolis, Minn.

The date of the wedding was also the 22nd wedding anniversary of the bride's parents.

Mrs. Charles F. Shields, nee Joan K. Donohoe. —O'Neill Photo Co.

Donohoe-Shields
Nuptials Read

Bouquets of garden flowers decorated the altar of St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill Saturday, September 13, for the 10 a.m. nuptial mass and double-ring ceremony, uniting in marriage, Miss Joan K. Donohoe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Donohoe of O'Neill and Charles F. Shields of Minden, Ia., son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Winnie Shields.

Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan officiated. Mrs. Calvin Coolidge sang "Ave Maria," "Pans Angelicus" and "On This Day," as the bride presented her bouquet at the Blessed Mother's altar. Mrs. Coolidge was accompanied at the organ by Sister Michael, who also played the wedding march.

Miss Donohoe, escorted by her father, approached the altar in a gown of great simplicity. It was fashioned of imported lace in a bride's fan pattern over skinner's satin. An empire look was given to the bodice with a nipped-in midriff. A scoop neckline was trimmed in scalloped detail lace, buttoning at the back with lace covered buttons and loops. Long crushed sleeves had the traditional bridal points at the wrists. The full skirt had an entrancing chapel train carrying the same scalloped detail lace trim. She wore an imported English illusion three-tier fingertip veil held by a plateau of rose-pointe chantilly lace trimmed with pleated rushing around the face and tiny seed pearls centered a tulle bow to the back.

Pearl earrings and necklace completed her ensemble. She carried a bouquet of red roses and a white rose.

She carried out the tradition of something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue and a penny in her shoe.

The maid-of-honor, Miss Lucille Hiltz of Howells, and bridesmaid, Miss Mary Kay Albers of Omaha, wore identical gowns of royal blue schiffli embroidery, ballerina length with a scooped neckline and short sleeves. They wore matching halo hats, shoes and gloves. They carried a single red rose.

Little Miss Susan Donohoe, sister of the bride, was flower girl. She carried rose petals in a basket. Her dress, hat and gloves were identical to that of the maid-of-honor and bridesmaid.

Mike Denning of Shelby, Ia., was best man. Les Kardell of Omaha was groomsmen. The bridegroom and his attendants wore dark suits with white carnation boutonnieres. Lowell Knott of Minden, Ia., and Harry Donohoe, uncle of the bride, ushered.

The mother of the bride chose a slate blue lace dress with navy and white accessories. She had a corsage of pink carnations.

Breakfast for the bridal party, relatives, Rev. Robert Duffy, was served at the Town House following the ceremony.

In the afternoon a reception was also held at the Town House for wedding guests.

Miss Ann Schwart of Omaha registered the guests. Mrs. Herb Russmann, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Lowell Hengeler of Columbus and Mrs. Frank Grenier, aunt of the bride, had charge of the gifts.

Miss Catherine Donohoe and Mrs. Hattie Kindlund, aunts of the bride, cut and served the four-tier cake. Mrs. Joe Schmidt, cousin of the bride, poured. Mrs. Jim Schmitz of Omaha, served the punch.

For traveling the bride chose a two-piece dress of blue and black cotton jersey with black accessories.

Following a two weeks' wedding trip to the Black Hills, the couple will make their home at Minden Ia.

Mrs. Shields was graduated from St. Mary's academy in 1954. She is a graduate nurse of St. Catherine's school of nursing in Omaha. She has been employed as surgical nurse and recently has been clinical instructor in surgery at St. Catherine's.

Mr. Shields graduated from Messena, Ia., high school and served three years in the navy. He is presently employed in Minden.

Out-of-town relatives and friends attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Herb Russman and son, Jerry, of Minden, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bross of Beresford, S. D.; Mr. and Mrs. Davis Mills of Messena, Ia.; Mardy Mills of Cummerland, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Upkide and son, Kenny, of Avoca, Ia.; Miss Lillie Russman of Avoca, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hiltz and son, Richard, of Howells; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Donohoe of Fremont; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Langan and Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Hengeler of Columbus; Miss Joann Backman of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rotherham of Ewing.

Four delegates from Holt county are attending the state council of home extension clubs meeting in York, The meeting today (Thursday).

Delegates are Mrs. James Batenhorst of Stuart, Mrs. Anson Closson of O'Neill, Mrs. J. L. Pruden of Ewing and Mrs. Vera Sageser of Amelia.

They were accompanied by Home Agent Catherine Indra.

Pleasant Day
Club to Discontinue Organization Founded in 1940

ROCK FALLS—Pleasant Day club met at the home of Mrs. Don Sterns on Wednesday, September 10, with five members and one visitor, Miss Evelyn Sterns, president.

This was their first meeting since May when they convened for the summer. It was decided at the meeting that the club which had been active since 1940, would discontinue for a time.

The group will meet for a farewell dinner and theatre party in the near future. The date will be decided later.

Other Rock Falls News

Mrs. Theresa Breiner returned last week from a two-week visit in Los Angeles, Calif., with her daughters and sons-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Bailey and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bohny. Mrs. Bohny accompanied her home and will spend a few weeks visiting other family members in the O'Neill vicinity.

The Francis Curran home in O'Neill was the scene of a family picnic on Sunday. Present were: Mr. and Mrs. James Curran and Ardell, Mr. and Mrs. Burt Ott, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Ott and children, Mrs. Dale Curran and children, George Curran and Anita Ellston.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Borg were Sunday afternoon visitors and supper guests of the Don Hynes family.

Wednesday, September 1 was Lynda Hynes' 10th birthday anniversary. Her schoolmates and teacher surprised her in the afternoon by serving refreshments. At her home in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Duane Anson and girls joined the family to help celebrate her birthday.

Cindy Brown and Tommy Veust are spending the week in O'Neill in preparation for first communion Sunday. They are staying with their grandmothers, Mrs. Celia Grutsch and Mrs. Doris Hynes.

Eagle Creek 4-H club met on Sunday evening at the Don Hynes home with all members present except Mary Jo Curran and Terry and Cindy Brown. Russell Derickson was a visitor, accompanied by his parents and little brother, Craig.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Johnson were Sunday afternoon and evening guests of the Lowell Johnson family. Their daughter, Mrs. Dore (Lynette) Anderson of Donner, Del., was also present.

Linda Johnson spent Sunday afternoon at her brother, Gordon's home in O'Neill.

Lynda Hynes was a Monday night guest of the Lyle McKay family. In the evening the children enjoyed the show in O'Neill.

Stocker-Feeder
Sale Date Oct. 8

The annual Holt district stocker-feeder show and sale, sponsored by O'Neill Chamber of Commerce and extension service is set for Wednesday, October 8.

Four 4-H members from Holt and surrounding counties are invited to show their calves. Managers of the sale are Clarence Ernst and Harry Ressel, both of O'Neill.

Donald Enzel, animal husbandman will judge the show. Any rancher wishing to enter the commercial division should get in touch with the managers or the county extension office.

Joe Hoppes, 68,
Dies at Burwell

BURWELL—Funeral services for Joe Hoppes, 68, of Burwell, were held 2:30 p.m., Saturday, September 13, at the Christian church in Burwell. He died late Tuesday in the Burwell hospital.

Survivors include the widow, three sons and three daughters including Mrs. Don Mills of Atkinson.

Mrs. Jerry J. Cuddy . . . before her September marriage she was Miss Viona Marie Burgett of Amelia.—O'Neill Photo Co.

To Become Nurse

Miss Sharon Murray (above) entered St. Catherine's school of nursing Monday, at Omaha. Miss Murray was graduated from St. Mary's academy, class of 1957, and has been employed since by Central Finance Corp. in O'Neill. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Murray.

Go to Schuyler—

ATKINSON—Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Clifford drove to Schuyler Saturday morning where they left Bobby and Bonnie, who went boating and water skiing with friends. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford continued to Lincoln, where they attended the 7:30 wedding of Miss Beverly Buck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gleen Buck, to Jack Pollock, son of Judge and Mrs. Pollock of Stanton.

Two Stacks Lost
in Meadow Fire

PAGE—Two stacks of hay and 15 acres of hay meadow were burned about 11 o'clock Thursday at the Mrs. Clara Waterman farm, located 2 1/2 miles north and 1 1/2 miles east of Page. The fire was brought under control by the Page fire department. A tractor was responsible for stating it.

Other Page News

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Farnsworth left for a trip to the West coast Wednesday, September 10. They will visit Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Johnson at Boise, Ida.; his sister, Mrs. Jessie Boyd at Spokane, Wash.; his brother, Jay and family at Portland, Ore., and Mrs. George Horan at Cottage Grove. They will also visit San Francisco, Calif., and other points of interest enroute. They expect to be gone about two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Max took them to Grand Island where they continued their trip by train.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Heiss left Thursday for Powell, Wyo., where they will visit their son-in-law and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Asher and family, her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cullen and with her sister, Mrs. Mary Bergstrom, and other relatives at Newcastle.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Lautenschlager and sons, Larry, Noel and Mark, left Friday for their home at Lakewood, Calif., after spending a 10-day vacation here with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Lamason, and with relatives at Orchard.

Mrs. Gerald Goldfuss and children of Oakland, Calif., were Sunday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Goldfuss. They are visiting her parents, Mr. and

Clark Gaughenbaugh Elected President

Members of the WSCS and King's Daughters societies are requested to bring a dozen cookies each Friday evening, September 19, when they will sponsor a reception at the Methodist church in honor of the teachers of the Page school and the surrounding rural districts. A lunch will be served following the program.

Members of the Page chapter of the WCTU held an executive meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Dora Townsend. Plans were made for a county convention September 17, at the home of Mrs. Edgar Stauffer.

Mrs. Leslie Summers was hostess to the members of the Neighborhood club Wednesday, September 11, for a social afternoon at cards. Mrs. George Wettlaufer held high score; Mrs. Ed Egan, second high and Mrs. Lee Fink, low. For the sake of convenience, Mrs. Ray Hansen will hostess the group September 17 instead of the regular meeting date.

Mr. and Mrs. Soren Sorenson, sr., went to Creighton Monday, September 8, where they were overnight guests of their son, Russell, and family. Next day they attended the funeral services for Clark Edson of Burlington, Wash., a former resident of the Middlebranch community. They were supper and evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Soren Sorenson, jr.

Robert Sorenson left Monday for Omaha where he enrolled for a course in public accounting at Creighton university. Previous to his enlistment in the army, he was a student at Wayne State Teachers and expected to become an athletic coach.

Mrs. Emmitt Thompson was hostess to the members of the NOK club for an afternoon of visiting Wednesday, September 11. The ladies brought their own work. The hostess served lunch.

Goldfuss Is Separated from Army—

PAGE—Gene Goldfuss was separated from the army at Ft. Sheridan, Ill., enroute to his home at Page after 11 months of overseas duty with the 62nd AAA unit at Sullivan barracks near Mannheim, Germany. He worked as a mechanic. The trip home was made by ship, plane and train. His wife arrived from Portland, Ore., where she has lived with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl McDonald, while he was overseas.

Attend Reunion—

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Switzer Sunday attended the Switzer picnic reunion at the Ben Pronneke home southwest of Norfolk. There were 53 present.

Weekend Special on Hula Hoops!

Make Lee's your headquarters for HULA HOOPS Dollar Days Only 2 for $3

Special 88c

LITTLE MOTHER'S — PLASTIC SHOES, reg. 98c DOLLAR DAYS ONLY — SMALL, MEDIUM, LARGE

ALL-PURPOSE WHITE PAINT

Save

Save

EXTERIORS
• Bridges—Fences
• Silos—Barns
• Sheds—Garages
• Homes—Porches

INTERIORS
• Walls—Ceilings
• Woodwork—Trims
• Over Basement Walls
• Ready to Use

Here's an opportunity for a paint job at a low, low price. $1.99 Gal.

DURABLE AND BEAUTIFUL.

RE-DECORATING SPECIAL

SAVE $1.12 a gallon

THE NEW Super-TEX Surfa-Tone Vinyl Latex FLAT WALL FINISH

Regularly $4.89 Now Only $3.77 gallon

The biggest paint bargain you'll see this year . . . $1.12 off the regular price of nationally known Super-Tex Surfa-Tone in the wonderful new vinyl latex formula.

★ Dries in 30 minutes! ★ Extra easy to wash!
★ Use room same day it is painted! ★ New flat finish!
★ Easy to apply! ★ Lovely decorator colors!
★ Use brush or roller! ★ You save 1/4 the regular price!

LEE STORES

Double A Auctions

ATKINSON'S MARKET REPORT:
Tuesday, September 16 Auction

Cattle receipts were light compared to the demand for replacement cattle. Steer calves sold from $33.50 to $35.50 heifer calves $30.00 to $33 with some light weight above the latter figure. Yearling steers sold from $27.00 to $30.00 with some fall calf kinds on up to $31.70. Heifers largely from $25.00 to $26.00 with plainer or catty kinds from $22.00 to $24.00. All classes of butcher cattle in strong demand. Cows bulked from $16.50 to $18.00 with some 945 lb. young cows on up to $22.40 going back to the ranch. Canners $14.00 to $18.75. Best beef cows $17.50 to $21.00. Bulls largely $20.00 to $21.00 with only shelly kinds below the $19.00 figure.

Next auction Tuesday, Sept. 23rd. Next Carlot Sale September 30th. We must have your listings by Friday evening for the card mailing on the sale of the 30th. We need more cattle—the prices are good. Phone us today. Remember the Black Friday auction on October 17th. Get your listings in early for this Special Angus event.

Atkinson Livestock
Atkinson, Nebr.

When in Omaha

HOTEL CONANT

200 ROOMS $2 to $3