Miss Ardath Barnett
Weds Baseball Star

Miss Ardath Barnett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Barnett of 1924 Ninth ave., Greeley, Colo., became the bride of Ronald Herbel of Brighton, Colo., Friday, September 19, in an evening wedding at the First Methodist church at Greeley.

The marriage is of wide interest also in California where the bridegroom is under contract to the San Francisco Giants. The former pitcher for the Colorado State college Bears spent the summer at Fresno, Calif., with one of the Giants' clubs. Herbel attended college at Greeley for two years and is a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity. He is the son of Mrs. Evelyn Herbel and the late Samuel Herbel of 230 South seventh, Brighton.

The bride was graduated from Greeley high school and attended Colorado State last year. She has been employed in the secretarial office on the CSC campus during the past two summers.

Both the bride and bridegroom are enrolled at college at Greeley for this coming year. They are residing at 2303 10th ave., following a short honeymoon in the Estes Park area.

Dr. H. L. Weiss officiated at the double-ring ceremony in the presence of two hundred guests. The bride's father gave her away.

Mrs. E. D. Miller was the wedding organist for the 7 o'clock nuptials and Miss JoAnn Nelson, school friend of the bride, was vocalist. She sang "Because" and "Walk Hand in Hand" after the candles were lighted. While the couple knelt at the altar Miss Nelson sang "The Lord's Prayer". The church was beautifully decorated with an arch of salal and eucalyptus, sprinkled with daisy mums, which was flanked by two cathedral candelabra and a beauty basket of chrysanthemums and woodwardia fern. The mums were in rich autumn shades of yellow, apricot and bronze. Miss Rene Anderson and Miss Donna Jo Cole, college friends of the bride, were candlelighters.

The bride wore a floor length gown of imported Chantilly lace and nylon chiffon. Complementing the lace bodice were tapered lace sleeves which came to bridal points over the wrists. The Sabrina neckline was delicately scalloped and sprinkled with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The bouffant skirt was made of many yards of frothy chiffon. A matching headpiece held in place a fingertip veil of pure silk illusion. The bridal bouquet was a lovely arrangement of beige cymbidium orchids and stephanotis on a white ribbon, which was a gift to the bride from her father. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace, given to her by the bridegroom.

Tradition was carried out with an old coin belonging to her mother, which the bride tucked in her slipper; her gown and veil, something new; her hoop skirt, borrowed from a friend; and a blue bridal garter, a gift from her sister, Connie.

Miss Geraldyn Feland was maid-of-honor. Her ballerina length gown of bronze taffeta was princess style with deep V-neckline. Ribbon bands and bows accented the skirt. Her matching picture hat of net and taffeta was designed and made by the bride's mother. Miss Feland carried a cascade of yellow Fuji mums and gold angel feathers backed by gold roping tied in a lover's knot.

Miss Connie Barnett, sister of the bride, and Miss Kaye Rott-haus a school friend, were bridesmaids. Their dresses and hats were like the maid-of-honor's except in shades of gold and copper. Their bouquets were also the same but the mums were bronze. Each attendant wore a tiny gold heart locket, the bride's gift to her.

Jerre Jones was bestman and groomsmen were Larry Turner and Jim Cox. Eugene Overton and Jack Ehrlich ushered. All are school friends of the bridegroom.

A sheath of pure silk pearl gray crystallette over taffeta, with all-over embroidery in yellow was worn by the bride's mother. Detail of the gown included a cummerbund and side drape of crystallette. Complimenting her costume were yellow gloves, black hat, shoes and purse and corsage of yellow roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a princess style gown of navy lake over taffeta. Her hat was of pink velvet and her shoes and gloves were navy. Pink roses formed her corsage.

Among out-of-state guests attending the wedding and reception which followed in Fellowship hall of the church, were: grandparents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Herbel of Brighton and Mr. and Mrs. John Jeckel of Denver; the bride's grandmother, Mrs. T. E. Alderson of Chambers; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fullerton and daughter, Beth, and Mr. and Mrs. George Fullerton, all of Amelia; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Ehrlich of Casper, Wyo.; and Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Feland and daughter, Vicki, of Mitchell, Neb.

Other guests were from Denver, Brighton, Ft. Collins, Sterling and Greeley.

The reception table was lighted by the glow from bridal white tapers, two double candlesticks. The three-tier wedding cake, which centered the table, was surrounded by yellow Goldilocks roses and fern and adorned with the same kind of roses. Green and white mints and napkins and green punch furthered the color scheme. Miss Barbara McCleery of Denver played incidental piano music throughout the reception.

Pouring the coffee was Mrs. W.

F. Brotherton, aunt of the bridegroom. Mrs. F. W. Dies, aunt of the bridegroom, presided at the punch bowl. Cutting and serving the cake were Mrs. George Fullerton, Mrs. Harold Fullerton and Mrs. Joe Lindahl, friends of the bride's family. The guest book was kept by Miss Karen Dies, cousin of the bridegroom. Taking care of the gift table were the Misses Mary Ellen Gillette, Mary Weingarth and Glenda Harper.

For traveling the bride wore a smart outfit of sapphire blue wool sheath, black velvet clip hat and black and gray accessories. Her corsage was the cymbidium orchids from her wedding bouquet.

Grandparents of the bride are: Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Barnett of Amelia and Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Alderson of Chambers.

Nebraska Farmer Says:
"d-CON CLEANED UP MY RAT- INFESTED FARM!"

Read What Melvin M. Yonka, Of Crofton, Nebraska, Has To Say About d-CON:
"When I moved onto my farm, it was infested with rats. I tried lots of rat-killers, but they just didn't prove out. Then one day I heard about d-CON. And believe me, d-CON really works. . . it's a rat-killer that gets results. d-CON cleaned up my rat infested farm. Switching to d-CON was a great break for me!"

It's a fact—in the great corn and wheat belts of America, where farmers really know how to get rid of rats, d-CON outdoes all other rat and mouse killers combined!

Farmers know that d-CON is the quick, sure, easy way to rid their property of destructive, disease-bearing rats. For rats hungrily eat d-CON's exclusive LX 3-2-1 formula, never suspect it's bait, never get bait-shy, devour it without guessing that every bite puts another nail in their coffin. d-CON actually makes rats commit suicide.

d-CON is THERMO-SEALED—always reaches you "factory fresh." Economical, too. One package of d-CON makes several bait stations.

Remember, d-CON, used as directed, is safe to use around small children, pets, poultry and livestock, yet is guaranteed to keep your property rat and mouse free forever!
