Couple Wed Here
in 1908 Observes
Golden Wedding

Sunday, September 28, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Burns, 222 15th st., Columbus, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at a family celebration. Dinner followed at St. Bonaventure hall after a 9:30 high mass at St. Bonaventure Catholic church. Two members of the original wedding party, Mrs. J. O. Moeller of Leigh, a sister of Mrs. Burns, and Ed Burns, a brother of Mr. Burns, were present for the festivities.

A gold and white color scheme was carried out including a yellow chrysanthemum centerpiece topped with a gold 50, tapered with a gold and small anniversary cake topped with a gold 50, which was baked by a daughter, Mrs. Ed Weber of Fairfield, Ia. Several baskets of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums completed the decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. Burns were married at St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill September 30, 1908.

Mrs. Burns, the former Kathryn Fallon, a daughter of John and Mary Fallon, was born and educated in O'Neill. She was a dressmaker and in 1906 moved to Platte Center where she operated a dressmaking and millinery shop until the time of her marriage. They lived at Platte Center following their marriage until 1935 when they moved to Columbus.

Mr. Burns, the son of Martin and Mary Burns, was born at Platte Center. He was educated there and attended college in Omaha and Columbus. He was associated with several general merchandise stores and was clerk at the postoffice at Platte Center before moving to Columbus. He is now storekeeper for the Loup River Public Power district.

They are the parents of five children: Mrs. Ed (Helen) Weber of Fairfield, Ia.; Robert of Columbus; Mrs. R. C. Phillips (Marius) of Albion; Mrs. Harry (Rita) Shank of Columbus and James, deceased. They have eight grandchildren.
