

"VOICE OF THE FRONTIER"
MON. - WED. - SAT.
9:30 to 9:55 A. M.

THE FRONTIER

North-Central Nebraska's BIGGEST Newspaper

Volume 78. - Number 25.

O'Neill, Holt County, Nebraska, Thursday, October 16, 1958.

SIXTEEN PAGES

SECTION ONE

Pages 1 - 8

Seven Cents

Schmiser and his son, Mike . . . plenty of practice at home.

Ewing Farmer 3rd in State Picking Contest

Mary E. Carney, 74, Found Dead at Home Daughter of Pioneer Couple

Miss Mary E. Carney, 74, daughter of a homesteading pioneer couple, was found dead at her home about 7:15 p.m. Wednesday, October 15. She had been an arthritis sufferer for several years and lived alone on E. Adams st.

John Jardee, 54, Dies Unexpectedly

STUART—John Jardee, 54, a Stuart well-driller, died at 11:30 p.m. Tuesday, October 14, at his home. Although he had been ill about three years, his death came unexpectedly.

Wayne Couple Hurt in Wednesday Crash

SPENCER—An automobile accident took place early Wednesday morning at Spencer. Two persons from Wayne were injured and the extent of their injuries has not yet been determined.

Named 'Miss Autumn' by K.C.C. of C

Miss Cera Corke, a student at Providence hospital in Kansas City, Mo., has been named "Miss Autumn" by the Kansas City Chamber of Commerce.

October 27 to Be Government Day

County government day will be held in O'Neill Monday, October 27. Juniors selected from the nine Holt county high schools will participate.

Elvis' Wows 'Em

"Elvis Presley" (Mrs. Frank Eppenbach) appeared on the extension achievement day program here Tuesday through the courtesy of the army—"frown" here from Germany. "Elvis" was a TV celebrity. (Other pictures on page 6.)—The Frontier Photo.

Holt NSIA Chapter Is Organized

3 1/2 Hour Session Is Attended by More Than 100 Persons

Three and a half hours were required to cover all the ground Monday night in an organizational meeting of the Holt county chapter of the Nebraska School Improvement Association.

Officers are: Harvey Krugman of O'Neill, president; Richard Clark of O'Neill, vice-president; Mrs. Fred Boettcher of Atkinson, secretary-treasurer.

Elected directors are: District I—Anson Closson of O'Neill; II—Wesley Larson of Ewing; III—Truman Rossman of Atkinson; IV—Lloyd Waldo of Chambers; V—Herbert Newman of Stuart; VI—Mrs. Mae Hanel of Atkinson.

Other nominees entered from the floor included Frank Gregor, jr., of Stuart, for president; Mrs. Claude Pickering of Redbird, director in district I; Bob Summerer of district II; Victor Fricke of Atkinson, district III; Duane Carson of Amelia, district IV; Mrs. Katie Papke of Stuart, district V; John Flannery of Atkinson and Gregor, district VI.

Directors from the even numbered districts will be elected in even years; odd districts, odd years. The three executive officers will be elected annually.

East-west U. S. highway 20 divides the county north and south for the district boundaries. U. S. highway 281 and state highway 11 (north-south highways) divide the north and south halves into three districts each. District I is the northeast sector; II, north-central; V, northwest; III, south-central; IV, south-central; VI, southwest.

More than one hundred persons attended, chiefly officers of rural school boards.

It was voted to fix a 25-cent annual fee per legal voter for each district. School boards are urged to send their memberships to Mrs. Boettcher, whose address is star route 3, Atkinson.

First annual meeting of the chapter will be held in April. Purpose of the organization is to look after the interests—legislative and otherwise—of small schools.

BACK FROM FAR EAST

Navy Lt. (jg) Donald E. Hagensick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hagensick, has been visiting for a week here, recently returned from the Far East where he had commanded an LST. After completing his leave he will leave for Seattle, Wash., where he will report to military sea transport service (MSTS).

Simultaneous Alarms for City's Firemen

Burning Rubbish Is Blamed for Both

Simultaneous fire alarms at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday took firemen two different directions. Both blazes were believed to have been started by burning rubbish.

At the Frank Clyde residence on South Fifth st. (first place south of the Burlington railroad tracks), fire severely damaged a combination wash house and workshop. The east loanto on the building was almost completely destroyed. Some of Mr. Clyde's tools were damaged.

Hruska, Anderson to Be in Caravan

Nebraska's republican caravan will windup its Fourth district pre-election tour here Wednesday night, October 22.

New Holt county extension officers installed at Tuesday's achievement day program are: Seated—Mrs. Clay Johnson, jr., of O'Neill, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. A. T. Crumly of Page, chairman; Mrs. Byron Blotz of Stuart, vice-chairman; standing—Mrs. Harold Mlinar of Atkinson, Mrs. G. H. Grimes of Chambers, Mrs. Lawrence Kaup of Stuart, Mrs. Fred Roberts of Atkinson, Mrs. George Mellor of O'Neill, Mrs. J. L. Pruden of Ewing, Mrs. Linden Mulford of Stuart, and Mrs. Lloyd Glead of Chambers, all are committee chairmen. Mrs. George Kiedel of Stuart is not pictured.—The Frontier Photo.

Firemen prepare to attack burning combination wash house and tool shop at the Frank Clyde residence. Rubbish burning nearby was blamed. The dwelling was saved.—The Frontier Photo.

Note 63d Wedding

EWING—Mr. and Mrs. Leon Sisson quietly observed their 63d wedding anniversary Wednesday, October 15, at their home in the Deloit community southwest of Ewing.

The Sissons came to this community in 1917 from St. Edward where they were married October 15, 1895, at the home of her parents.

Mr. Sisson, now 85, retired from active life several years ago. Their son, Fred, continues to operate the ranch and farm.

Mr. Sisson and his wife continue to live in their comfortable farm home. Mrs. Sisson, 82, does all her own housework. Both enjoy card games and belong to the Deloit Pinochle club which met Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Werkmeister.

Mr. and Mrs. Sisson have six children. They are: Mrs. Melvin (Fern) Rexin, Robley, Clarence and Fred, all of Ewing; Mrs. Echo Fisher of St. Edward, and Mrs. Otto (Helene) Reimer of Lincoln.

Cards of congratulations were received from many of their friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Ridgeway returned late Tuesday from a three-month's visit with relatives in Colorado. They were brought to their home here by Mrs. Ridgeway's sister, Mrs. Mary Anderson of Sheridan, Wyo.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Young of Manhattan, Kans., visited his mother, Mrs. Edith Young, Wednesday and Thursday, October 8 and 9. They were on their way to Rochester, Minn.

Return from West

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Ridgeway returned late Tuesday from a three-month's visit with relatives in Colorado. They were brought to their home here by Mrs. Ridgeway's sister, Mrs. Mary Anderson of Sheridan, Wyo.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Young of Manhattan, Kans., visited his mother, Mrs. Edith Young, Wednesday and Thursday, October 8 and 9. They were on their way to Rochester, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Young of Manhattan, Kans., visited his mother, Mrs. Edith Young, Wednesday and Thursday, October 8 and 9. They were on their way to Rochester, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Young of Manhattan, Kans., visited his mother, Mrs. Edith Young, Wednesday and Thursday, October 8 and 9. They were on their way to Rochester, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Young of Manhattan, Kans., visited his mother, Mrs. Edith Young, Wednesday and Thursday, October 8 and 9. They were on their way to Rochester, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Young of Manhattan, Kans., visited his mother, Mrs. Edith Young, Wednesday and Thursday, October 8 and 9. They were on their way to Rochester, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Young of Manhattan, Kans., visited his mother, Mrs. Edith Young, Wednesday and Thursday, October 8 and 9. They were on their way to Rochester, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Young of Manhattan, Kans., visited his mother, Mrs. Edith Young, Wednesday and Thursday, October 8 and 9. They were on their way to Rochester, Minn.

Lone Flag Flies Columbus Day

O'Neill business firms and government buildings showed little regard for the memory of Christopher Columbus.

Sunday, October 12—Columbus day—only one flag was flying in the business district. Not at the courthouse, not at the postoffice, not at the national guard armory, not at The Frontier building . . . but Old Glory was waving briskly near the marquee at the Golden hotel.

The courthouse and banks were closed Monday in observance—but there were no flags flying.

250 Attend Extension Achievement Affair

Two hundred and fifty Holt county extension club members and guests attended the annual achievement meeting in O'Neill, Tuesday, October 14.

The program included installation of new officers for 1958: Mrs. A. T. Crumly of Page, county chairman; Mrs. Byron Blotz of Stuart, vice-county chairman; Mrs. Clay Johnson, jr., of O'Neill, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. Fred Roberts of Atkinson, publicity chairman; Mrs. Laurence Kaup of Stuart, reading chairman; Mrs. Linden Mulford of Stuart, 4-H chairman; Mrs. E. A. Bouska of Stuart, retiring county chairman.

Center group chairmen are: Mrs. Harold Mlinar of O'Neill; Mrs. Fred Roberts of Atkinson; Mrs. J. L. Pruden of Ewing; Mrs. George Kiedel of Stuart; Mrs. Lorenze Riege of Page; Mrs. G. H. Grimes of Chambers.

Also recognized were retiring council members: Mrs. William Schorn of Atkinson, music chairman; Mrs. Ed Sevek of Atkinson, publicity chairman; Mrs. Edgar Stauffer of Page, past county chairman; Mrs. J. B. Mellor of Atkinson, family life chairman; group chairman: Mrs. Anson Closson of O'Neill; Mrs. James Batenhorst of Stuart; Mrs. Frank Tracy of Chambers.

A report on the state council meeting at York was given by Mrs. Vern Sageser of Amelia, Mrs. Anson Closson of O'Neill, Mrs. James Batenhorst of Stuart and Mrs. J. L. Pruden of Ewing.

Officers for the coming year were given as follows by the centers in the county: Page—"Better Achievements"; Chambers—"Farm to Live—Live to Farm"; Stuart—"Flower Time" and "He's Got the Whole World in His Hands"; Atkinson—"Smoky the Bear"; O'Neill, "TV Celebrities".

The boys' quartette from Willing Workers club of O'Neill—Gary Gillespie, Perry, and Larry Dawes and Kenneth Peacock—sang two numbers, "Wait for the Light to Shine" and "I'll Be Listening".

Special interest to the guests was the tape recording made by Wynn Spease, Neighbor Lady WAX at Yankton, S. D.

Officers for the coming year were given as follows by the centers in the county: Page—"Better Achievements"; Chambers—"Farm to Live—Live to Farm"; Stuart—"Flower Time" and "He's Got the Whole World in His Hands"; Atkinson—"Smoky the Bear"; O'Neill, "TV Celebrities".

The boys' quartette from Willing Workers club of O'Neill—Gary Gillespie, Perry, and Larry Dawes and Kenneth Peacock—sang two numbers, "Wait for the Light to Shine" and "I'll Be Listening".

Special interest to the guests was the tape recording made by Wynn Spease, Neighbor Lady WAX at Yankton, S. D.

Officers for the coming year were given as follows by the centers in the county: Page—"Better Achievements"; Chambers—"Farm to Live—Live to Farm"; Stuart—"Flower Time" and "He's Got the Whole World in His Hands"; Atkinson—"Smoky the Bear"; O'Neill, "TV Celebrities".

The boys' quartette from Willing Workers club of O'Neill—Gary Gillespie, Perry, and Larry Dawes and Kenneth Peacock—sang two numbers, "Wait for the Light to Shine" and "I'll Be Listening".

Special interest to the guests was the tape recording made by Wynn Spease, Neighbor Lady WAX at Yankton, S. D.

Officers for the coming year were given as follows by the centers in the county: Page—"Better Achievements"; Chambers—"Farm to Live—Live to Farm"; Stuart—"Flower Time" and "He's Got the Whole World in His Hands"; Atkinson—"Smoky the Bear"; O'Neill, "TV Celebrities".

Kreiziger Fatally Injured

World War I Vet Dies Following Imperial Auto Crash

EWING—Ed Kreiziger, 59, a native of Austria and a former resident of Ewing, died Friday, October 10, at Imperial within a few hours after figuring in an automobile accident.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Monday, October 13, at the Snider funeral home in Clearwater. Rev. P. F. Burke, pastor of St. Peter's Catholic church of Ewing, officiated.

Funeral services were George Nickolite, Pete Nickolite, Eddie Kozor, Lyle Dierks, Ernest Piersor and Wayne Shradar.

American Legion post 214 conducted services at the Miller cemetery south of Ewing. Colorbearers were R. H. Shain and Leo Hawk. Color guards were Roger Bennett and Louis Vandersnick. Robert Eppenbach, commander of post 214, directed the firing squad composed of Jerry Rotherham, Ivan Wright, Louis Hanna and Charles Spangler.

Kreiziger was born in Austria December 3, 1899, the son of the late Adolph and Rose Kreiziger.

At the age of six, he came to America with his parents, who located in the Ewing community. He attended school at Ewing and grew to manhood.

Mr. Kreiziger, who never married, had been engaged in farming and ranching. He was fatally injured in a wreck and died at Imperial where he made his home.

He was a veteran of World War I. He was preceded in death by his parents and one brother. Survivors include: brother—Robert of Ewing; sister—Mrs. Ann Kenney of Rapid City, S.D.; three nieces and two nephews.

Auction Calendar

Friday, October 17: Clarence and Eula Grimes, three miles north of Chambers and 3 1/2 miles west, complete closeout of registered, commercial Hereford herd, also dairy cattle, full line of farm and ranch machinery, feed, household goods; Mr. Grimes plans to enter a trade school; Col. Ed Thorin of O'Neill, auctioneer; Chambers State Bank, clerk.

Saturday, October 25: Benefit auction for the Sisters of St. Francis, sponsored by the Friends of St. Mary's. Contributed articles are solicited. George McCarthy and Joe Stutz, cochairmen; Col. Vern and Leigh Reynolds, Wallace O'Connell and Ed Thorin, auctioneers. (Details in next issue.)

Tuesday, October 28: H. A. and R. E. VanHorn's fourth annual registered Hereford sale at ranch, southeast of Page. (Details in next issue.)

Tuesday, October 28: The 870-acre improved Wheeler county Newvohner ranch will be offered at public auction at 2 p.m., at the courthouse in Bartlett; Arthur G. Auserer of Bartlett, referee; William W. Griffin of O'Neill, attorney.

Wednesday, October 29: Martin Mosel land, three miles west of Orchard, two miles north; new two-story dwelling, other improvements. (Details on page 16.)

Wednesday, November 5: Forty-five top Hereford cows, two to five-years-old, and calves; full line of haying machinery; some household goods; R. S. and Mary Osborne, seven miles south of Atkinson and one mile east; Col. Wallace O'Connell of O'Neill, auctioneer. (Details in next issue.)

Saturday, November 8: Twenty-sixth annual show and sale, North-Central Nebraska Hereford association, Bassett; 40 bulls, all ages, mostly two-year-olds, also four heifers; Tug Phillips, Bassett, sale manager. (Details in subsequent issues.)

Saturday, November 15: Joe J. Jelinek & Sons of Verdigré, annual registered Hereford production sale, 30 bulls, 22 females. (Details in subsequent issues.)

The Sissons . . . they quietly observed their 63d wedding anniversary Wednesday at their home south of Ewing.—The Frontier Photo.