Bedspread Over 100 Years-Old Will Be Featured in Show

More displays being solicited for the Grattan township library benefit art and hobby show to be held Saturday, October 25, at the American Legion auditorium. The show is being sponsored by the O'Neill Woman's club.

There will be an admission charge in order that funds can be turned over to the library for purchase of books.

Already entered are painted items submitted by Miss Donna Fuhrer, 26-year-old O'Neill invalid who wields a paint brush with her teeth. There will be an interesting collection of rocks, stones and minerals furnished by Carlyle Washack. Helmut Arnold is entering a rocking horse and a cradle, both products of his hobby shop, also some of his original paintings. Arnold is a native of Germany and is now a citizen working for the state highway department.

There will be numerous quilts entered. Mrs. Fred Holsclaw is entering a bedspread heirloom, believed to be more than one hundred years old. There will be specimens of ceramic work in all stages and examples of cake decorations.

It is hoped there will be a booth of photographs of yesteryear. Mrs. P. B. Harty will be in charge of the photo display. Photos will be returned to loaners.

"We hope anyone with something of interest will not be hesitant to bring in entries," explained Mrs. H. D. Gildersleeve, who is in charge of arrangements.
