Letters to the Editor

Chambers, Neb.
Since you are printing editorials of other papers please consider the one I am enclosing. As you can see this is taken from the Lincoln Evening Journal and Nebraska State Journal, September 13, 1938, p.m.

To me it is certainly a better statement of facts of a situation than your feeble editorial and certainly nearer the point than the one carried in your October 3 issue—even though it is written by David Lawrence.

Segregation is contrary to the ideals of a Christian nation or a democratic one. How can you say it is a "tradition" of our country. True some adjustment was needed in the South after the Civil war, but that's been a long time ago. Most of the Southerners aren't trying to do anything but keep the Negro "in his place"—which in their opinion is in the dust under their feet! Racial intolerance, mob violence, etc., should have no place in our nation, and the fact that it has makes me wonder if we are not a bunch of hypocrites instead of a nation given to the beliefs of Christianity and democracy!

Before you write your next editorial please consider if it would sound the same if your skin were black instead of white and if instead of being accepted or rejected by others on your own merits you were shut out simply because your skin was black.

MRS. VERNON WHITAKER
Editor's note: Mrs. Whitaker might be interested in another U. S. News & World Report article that predicts the white race in America is destined to become chocolate-colored in 400 or 500 years.

Kissingers Note 60th Anniversary

ATKINSON—Mr. and Mrs. B. F. (Frank) Kissinger of Atkinson celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary Sunday afternoon, October 5.

A family gathering was held at the park house in Atkinson. The group included four of the Kissingers' children:

Mrs. Clarence (Nettie) Tasler of Stuart, Mrs. Waldo (Grace) Frost of Stuart, Ralph Kissinger of Atkinson and Mrs. Oscar (Leona) Fullerton of Neligh, together with their spouses and a number of the Kissingers' grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

One son, Arthur, of San Bruno, Calif., was unable to be present. There are 17 grandchildren and 25 great-grandchildren.

The Kissingers have lived in the Atkinson community for 50 years. Mrs. Kissinger is the former Ella Jenkins. They both lived in Iowa when on October 4, 1888, they drove with a team of ponies and carriages from Correctionville, Ia., to Sioux City, where they were married. The distance was only 36 miles, but the trip took them six hours.

The couple spent their honeymoon in Sioux City and then set up housekeeping on a farm near Washita, Ia., where they lived for six years. They then moved to Pierson, Ia., where Mr. Kissinger was employed in a general store for a few years.

Leaving Iowa in 1906, they came to Atkinson and operated the Fruit choff farm 11 miles north of here until 1916, when they moved to town so that their children could attend high school.

In town Mr. Kissinger was manager of the Farmers Union store located in the present Gamble store building. He also operated a dairy business for years, and at one time operated the Nite & Day cafe in Atkinson.

Later they purchased a farm located 7½ miles south of Atkinson on highway 11 and resided there until 1955 when they sold the place and retired. They now reside in an apartment at the Stockman hotel in Atkinson. They are both active and enjoy fairly good health.

Christian World Mourns Pope's Loss

Roman Catholics are mourning the death of Pope Pius XII, spiritual leader of 450 million persons throughout the world. He died at 8:52 p.m. (CST) Wednesday, October 8, at his summer home at Castel Gandolfo, Italy, about 18 miles from Rome.

The 82-year-old Pontiff had been gravely ill since suffering a cerebral stroke Sunday, October 5. The second, and fatal stroke, came Wednesday morning.

Pope Pius XII, 261st in the long series of sovereigns who sat on St. Peter's throne, was known worldwide as the Pope of Peace. His untiring efforts to promote peace among the nations of the world began 41 years ago, long before he was elevated to the papacy.

Before he became Pope in 1939, he served as papal secretary of state. In that capacity, he visited the United States in 1936, the highest official of the Roman Catholic church ever to visit this country. In his travels, he saw more of the world at first hand and grew to know it better than any other Pope.

The Supreme Pontiff, Pius XII, Eugenio Pacelli, was born at Rome March 2, 1876, ordained priest April 2, 1899, consecrated bishop by Benedict XV May 13, 1917, proclaimed cardinal December 16, 1929, and secretary of state February 7, 1930; elected Pope as successor of Pius XI March 2, 1939 (his 634 birthday), crowned March 12, 1939.

Bonding Firms Manifest Interest Airport Issue Will Finance Runway

Five men have been named by Mayor D. C. Schaffer and the city council to O'Neill's newly-created Municipal airport authority.

They are Guy F. Cole, J. F. Contois, James W. Rooney, C. R. Foree and H. G. Kruse.

Cole will serve until the next regular municipal election; Contois and Rooney were appointed for two years, and Foree and Kruse were appointed for three years.

As the appointive terms expire the authority will become elective on a staggered basis with at least one post on the ballot each year.

Monday night the new airport board met and organized. Rooney was elected chairman; Contois, vice-chairman; Kruse, secretary.

A civil engineering firm, Thomas, Benjamin & Clayton of Grand Island, was engaged as consultants.

Members of the authority will accompany Mayor Schaffer to Lincoln Friday to confer with the state aeronautics commission relative to matching state and federal funds for improving O'Neill's airport.

It is tentatively planned to blacktop a runway 4,200 ft. long (running from northwest to southeast, the direction of the prevailing wind). The length is the minimum requirement Frontier Air Lines DC-3 passenger planes now traversing northern Nebraska.

Accompanying Schaffer to Lincoln will be Contois and Kruse.

Rooney said several bonding firms are interested in the O'Neill project and informally stated they would be ready to bid on a revenue bond issue in an amount ranging from 35 to 40 thousand-dollars, which will be the city's share. The state will match that and the federal aeronautics bureau will match the combined city-state total, making an overall cost approximately 140 to 180 thousand-dollars.

When formalities are completed bonds will be advertised for bid.

Lincoln Airman Electrocutted

LINCOLN—A Lincoln air base airman was killed Tuesday when a crane loading pipes on a flatbed truck came in contact with a high voltage wire at the base.

A. C. Ira X. Moss, 20, was standing on the ground, guiding the new drainage pipes onto the truck when the contact occurred, base officials said.

The high voltage wire was broken and the area was without power for several hours.

Airman Moss is survived by his widow, Marie Catherine, of Lincoln, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil T. Moss of Star rt., Payette, Idaho.

O'Neill's Postmaster Ira Moss said he had a cousin named Cecil who moved to Idaho many years ago. It was believed the electrocuted young man was a son of that cousin.

Biggest Sale of Season Today

We'll be having at least 1,500 head of cattle today (Thursday)—probably our biggest sale of the season.

We're expecting between 700-900 heavy calves, mostly in load lots, mostly whiteface heifers and steers with one outstanding load of 450-lb. Shorthorns. This will be our finest selection of sandhills calves yet.

There will be 600 head of yearling cattle, weighing 600-800 pounds. Many of these, too, will be in carload lots, with lots of heifers and steers coming from all directions.

Many buyers have been going home empty handed in recent sales.
