

Further Plans for Bazaar at Page

PAGE—Mrs. O. A. Weber and Mrs. Soren Sorensen, sr., led the devotions and the meditations Thursday when the members of the Women's Society of Christian Service met at the Wesleyan room of the Methodist church for an afternoon of study and work. Mrs. Howard Miller of Ewing was a guest.

During the business meeting in which Mrs. Jesse Kelly presided, plans were made for the annual bazaar. The King's Daughters will have the food booth and the fish pond while the WSCS will be in charge of the fancywork display and the 25 cent table. Dinner and supper will be served election day—Tuesday, November 4. No charge will be made for children under school age. Those under 12-years-old will be charged 50 cents and adults $1.

Members of the society are requested to bring pie Tuesday, October 28, when the King's Daughters will serve the noon meal at the H. A. and Robert E. Van Horn sale.

Plans for the annual UNICEF program are underway. The children will meet at the church as usual before going out in groups to canvass the town for funds to purchase milk for underprivileged children both at home and abroad.

A bill for $3.15 for UNICEF material was presented and Mrs. Herbert Steinberg reminded the group that the mission pledge of $100 is due November 1, also $11.35 supple asking. All bills were ordered paid.

The Monday evening study course is given each week at the church at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Edgar Stauffer is the leader.

Get-well cards were sent to Miss Faye Irene Ballantyne of Independence, Mo., who was injured in a car wreck and is hospitalized there, and to Mrs. L. G. Bernholtz, who is a patient at St. Anthony's hospital at O'Neill, being treated for a diabetic condition.

East Siders Hear

Two Lessons—PAGE—Mrs. Warren Cronk and Mrs. Merwyn French, jr., presented the lesson on lamps and light Wednesday, October 15, when members of the East Side Country Klub met at the home of Mrs. Harold Kelly. Mrs. Kelly gave the lesson—a delayed one—on soups and demonstrating the making of cheese and a Norwegian fruit soup.

The leaders will give the second half of the lesson on lighting Wednesday, November 19, when Mrs. Melvin Carson will be the entertaining hostess.
