Frills Omitted but Sandwiches Zestful Omit the frills but be prepared with plenty of zestfully flavored sandwiches for those teenage gatherings at the house, advises Bill Perry, supervisor of the local Meador Gold Dairy, who sends us one of his favorites. That's what young people prefer.

These hot barbecue ham sandwiches were developed by Beatrice Cooke, director of the company's test kitchens in Chicago. They're a good choice because the barbecue sauce can be prepared ahead of time. Then when the crowd arrives, the sauce can be reheated with ham pieces while the buttered buns are warming.

- BARBECUE HAM SANDWICHES (Makes 8 sandwiches)
2 tablespoons finely chopped onion
2 tablespoons finely chopped green pepper
3 tablespoons butter
2 8-ounce cans tomato sauce
3/4 cup water
2 tablespoons brown sugar
2 teaspoons vinegar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
2 cups diced cooked ham
1/4 cup butter, softened
1/2 teaspoon garlic salt
8 hamburger buns
Cook onion and green pepper in 3 tablespoons butter until tender. Stir in tomato sauce, water, sugar, vinegar and seasonings. Simmer, uncovered, 10 minutes. Add ham and simmer 10 minutes longer. Blend butter, garlic salt, salt; spread on each side of split buns. Heat in bun warmer or wrap in foil and heat in 350-degree oven for 10 minutes. Fill with ham mixture. 26c (adv)
