Mrs. Robert Kurtz New President of Band Mothers

Wednesday evening, October 15, the O'Neill Band Mothers held an election and meeting in the band room at the public school. Mrs. Roy J. Shelhamer, the outgoing president, conducted the meeting. She outlined the past year's activities including the purchasing of new uniforms and the selling of the old uniforms. She thanked everyone for their cooperation.

Duane Miller, band director, gave a talk on the policies of the band. He also told of a student committee appointed to help enforce the policies.

Officers elected were: Mrs. Robert Kurtz, president; Mrs. Leo Gokke, vice-president; Mrs. Joe Ternis, secretary, and Mrs. Floyd Wilson, treasurer.

Mrs. Shelhamer turned the meeting over to Mrs. Kurtz, who asked for a vote of thanks to last year's officers, especially the outgoing president. All other officers move up to the next office.

Coffee and cookies were served by Mrs. M. B. Marcellus, Mrs. Bennett Gillespie and Mrs. Leona Shoemaker.
