(Continued from page 1.) born September 19, 1888. Her parents were Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Crossman who were immigrants from Germany. Louise was an only child in the home of her parents. She attended Fremont Normal school in 1906. Mr. Damero, whose parents were John and Fredericka Damero, was born at Walworth, Wis., October 19, 1879. His father was German-Franco and his mother was German. His mother's ship-powered by sails—set out to cross the Atlantic with a load of immigrants. After being at sea six days the vessel turned up in port where it had started. John was 2½-years-old when the family came to Holt from Wisconsin. John and Louise began housekeeping on the Damero family farm located across the intersection from the Phoenix store-post-office (21 miles north of O'Neill and 10 miles west) and still make their home there near their son, Lyle. When John was eight-years-old he accompanied an older sister and older brother on a 75-mile cattle drive to Gracie flats near Burwell, Garfield county. They were gone all summer. "No hay at home," he explained, "we had to take the cattle to pasture." Mr. Damero vividly remembers the famous blizzard of 1888. "Wouldn't make any changes," Mr. Damero told "Voice of The Frontier" listeners in a recorded interview, "if we had the 50 years to live over. We've enjoyed good things. Couldn't make any changes any more to our credit." Mrs. George Syfie, sr., Mr. Damero's sister, is the only other living child in the family of nine Damero children. The Dameros have five grand-children—all of whom were present for Sunday's celebration.

Ho Hum! Cardinals Waltz Thru Greeley

Bill Craig tallied the first St. Mary's academy score with less than two minutes gone in the first period of play after Gene Schneider had raced 47 yards to the Greeley Sacred Heart nine-yard-line. Firmo then on the ball game was all BIG RED. When the final gun sounded Friday night in Carney park the score was St. Mary's 76, Sacred Heart 0, in one of the most one-sided games ever seen here. All eyes now are being turned forward on the Spencer game coming up Monday night. The Cardinals haven't beaten a Pirate team in any sport in the last five years. Last season the two schools didn't compete. Spalding academy and Lynch might give the Big Red trouble ahead. Spalding is in the state's top 10.

Badger Upset Puts O'Neill on Top

Bassett Tigers upset the touted Valentine Badgers, 7-0, Friday night in the season's biggest upset in the North-Central conference. Meanwhile, Springview hit Atkinson, 26-6.

The O'Neill high Eagles now move into top spot in the league ladder. It was erroneously reported last week the Eagles were ineligible for the title.

Standings:

Team	W	L
O'Neill	2	0
Stuart	3	1
Valentine	3	1
Bassett	2	2
Ainsworth	2	3

Andy Obri, on a 15-yard junket, and Bob Haun, on a two-yard stint, scored for Spencer.
