Rural Pupils See Health Films

Holt county rural schools have been divided into 16 groups for the health program, it was announced Tuesday by Miss Alice L. French. county superintendent of public instruction.

From five to 10 schools with 30 to 109 pupils gathered in the 16 centers October 13-17, to hear Mrs. Myrtle Day, assistant director public health education in Nebraska, discuss some of the health problems which are important to children. After discussing healthy foods, care of teeth and safety. Mrs. Day showed two health films, 'Winky, the Watchman'' and "Monkey Tales." There were 948 children, 111 teachers and 25 visitors or drivers who attended. Us ually the program, for the children ended with a fire drill. A short demonstration or teach ers of some easily constructed educational toys completed the program

Miss French accompanied Mrs. Day to all centers.

That at the general election in November, 1958, there shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Nebraska, for approval, the following amendment to Article IV, section 1, of the Constitution of Nebraska, which is hereby proposed by the Legislature: "Sec. 1. The executive officers of the state shall be the Governor, Lieuten-ant Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor of Public Accounts, Treasurer, Attorney General, and the heads of such other executive departments as set forth herein or as may be established by law. The Legislature may provide for the placing of the above named officers as heads over such departments of government as it may by law establish. The Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, Secretary of State, Auditor of Public Accounts, and the Treasurer shall be chosen at the general election held in November, 1958, and in each evennumbered year thereafter, and their term of office shall be two years and until their successors shall be elected and qualified. The records, books, and papers of all executive officers shall be kept at the seat of government, and such officers, excepting the Lieutenant Governor and members of boards and commissions when the board or commission is the head of an executive de-partment, shall reside there during their respective terms of office. Officers in the executive department of the state shall perform such duties as may be provided by law. The heads of all executive departments established by law, other than those to be elected as provided herein, shall be appointed by the Governor, with the consent of a majority of all members elected to the Legislature, but officers so appointed may be removed the Governor. Subject to the provisions of this Constitution, the heads of the various executive or civil departments shall have power to appoint and remove all subordinate employees in their respective departments.
