State Capitols Used in Call of Roll

AMELIA—Most recent meeting of the Inez Valley Junior American Citizens club was called to order October 15 by Ronnie Wiggins, president. Everyone was present and for roll call a state and its capitol were named. Lavonne Sladek suggested the next week work will be done on our scrapbooks. For the Thanksgiving project, table mats will be made for the hospital in Atkinson. Work started November 4. Carol Wiggins seconded the motion. Gladys Roe is leaving us to move to Valentine.

The first and second grades made jack-o-lanterns for Halloween, they also made a salad and all had a taste of it and it was good. We made experiments about air is helpful to us and harmful. The mothers visited school October 21 and we showed them what we could do. The eighth graders, Ronnie Wiggins and Dick Wiggins, put a skeleton of a cow together. Eddie Sladek and Bill Roe visited school. A Halloween party masquerade was held Friday, October 30.—Lavonne Sladek, reporter.

Central America Missionary to Speak

Loren Triplett, missionary to Nicaragua, Central America, will be speaking and presenting "Mission Nicaragua," at the Assembly of God church Tuesday, November 11, at 8 p.m. "Mission Nicaragua" is a full color photo report of the progress of the church in Central America. It includes scenes of native living conditions, scenic interests, the work of the mission Bible institute as well as details of life in a foreign land. Phone us your news—51

Firemen Called as Wind Rages

A grass fire at noon Saturday burned off more than half of a square block in a vacant area at the east edge of O'Neill. Elmer Hinshaw was burning off weeds. The fire got away from him and firemen were needed. The firemen were called at 11:15 p.m. Tuesday to the Jack Taylor residence north of the corner of Ninth and Adams st. The chimney was burning out but there was no damage. The siren produced an eerie sound as high winds raged. There was some isolated lightning in Frontland Tuesday night but no damage was reported. Gene Koenig of Ewing was a weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Adamson. Mrs. Carrie Borg visited Sunday afternoon at the Minnie Bay home.
