

Scrapbook Need Told to Workers

INMAN—Mrs. Ethel Siders entertained the Inman Workers Project club at her home Wednesday afternoon, November 19. Twelve members and one visitor, Mrs. Raymond Taylor, were present. Mrs. Albert Reynolds was in charge of the meeting and she also presented the lesson on making wood fiber flowers. She demonstrated how to make carnations, violets and orchids.

Mrs. Walter Ubben and Mrs. Anthony reported on the St. Anthony's hospital auxiliary meeting and stated that the auxiliary is in need of scrapbooks.

Mrs. James McMahon provided two scrapbook covers and Gaylene Anthony and Christie Ubben each made a scrapbook of Christmas scenes for the hospital.

Mrs. Siders served her guests refreshments.

The December meeting will be a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Anthony. Dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock followed by the party at which time the secret plans will be revealed and new ones drawn.

Colonel Oppen On Aerial Trip—Germany to U. S.

INMAN—Mr. and Mrs. Ira Watson and son, John, of O'Neill drove to Lincoln Saturday evening to visit their son-in-law and brother-in-law, Colonel Clifford R. Oppen. Oppen had flown from Wiesbaden, Germany, to spend a week at the Pentagon in Washington, D. C., on business. He also had business at Offutt air force base in Omaha.

Colonel Oppen, his wife (the former Patricia Watson) and two children left last February for Wiesbaden. He is commander of the 7,000th air force intelligence wing at Rhine-Main Germany.

Train-Truck Collision Scatters Hay

The Burlington railroad crossing at the north edge of Laurel on U.S. highway 20 was the scene of another accident Wednesday, November 12. A semi-truck loaded with hay failed to make it over the crossing before the eastbound O'Neill-St. Louis City train hit it, scattering hay over a wide area. Driver and owner of the truck, Wayne Smith of Chambers, was northbound. The front of the diesel engine hit the truck at the fifth wheel, severing the trailer from the tractor. Smith escaped with a minor forehead cut. Carl Holt of Sioux City was engineer. The truck was a complete wreck and the diesel needed minor repairs.—Photo courtesy The Laurel Advocate.

156 Attend Switzer Open-House Affair

One hundred fifty-six persons Sunday attended the open-house observance of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Switzer held at First Methodist church.

The Switzers were observing their 50th wedding anniversary.

Guests came from Azusa, Calif., North Platte, Omaha, Norfolk, Meadow Grove, Tilden, Madison, Clearwater, Ewing, Inman, Emmet, Atkinson, Stuart, Bassett, Crookston, Page, Brunswick, Magnet and Chambers.

The anniversary cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Harold Asher. Mrs. Ben Asher of Page was in charge of the guest book. The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Robert Saxon of Omaha and Mrs. Cal Heddeson of Bassett, nieces of Mrs. Switzer.

Mrs. Bayne Grubb of Chambers poured. Mrs. Dwight Bloomquist of Magnet, Mr. Switzer's niece, and Mrs. Grace Schenk of Brunswick served.

Guests included Mr. Switzer's cousins, the Krenzies and McConnells of North Platte. Mr. Switzer had not seen those kin for 65 and 45 years, respectively. His brother, Glenn, of Azusa, Calif., came the greatest distance.

Present from Omaha Mr. and Mrs. Robert Saxon and family (Mrs. Saxon is Mrs. Switzer's niece), Mrs. Clara Thornton (Mr. Switzer's aunt), and Mr. and Mrs. Reed Switzer and family (Reed is Mr. Switzer's nephew).

Sixty-five were served at a family dinner at noon at the Switzer residence, 113 East Everett st.

Mrs. Switzer's maiden name was Virginia Pugh. They were married at Stanton, November 23, 1908.

Fog and threatened ice on the highways kept many from attending and prompted some from a distance to leave early for their homes.

Dips or Dunks Ideal for Parties
Call them dips or dunks, but with the holidays coming on, many homemakers must surely be seeking a few tasty, new recipes for appetizers for holiday parties. Here's one to add to your collection that was offered to us by Bill Perry, supervisor of the local Meadow Gold plant. It features the dairy's popular chive cottage cheese and sour cream.
This recipe was created by Beatrice Cooke, director of the Meadow Gold test kitchens in Chicago. Plain cream style cottage cheese may be used, she reports, if you blend a little chopped chives or green onion into it.
CHIVE CHEESE DIP
(Makes 3 cups)
1 16 ounce carton chive cottage cheese
1 8-ounce package cream cheese
½ cup dairy sour cream
2 teaspoons soy sauce
Few drops hot pepper sauce
2 tablespoons grated onion.
½ teaspoon seasoning salt.
Combine ingredients and beat until well mixed. Serve with assorted crackers and potato chips. 31c
