Mr. and Mrs. Luther Leroy Lakey . . . newlyweds will reside in Chicago.—O'Neill Photo Co

Allyn-Lakey Rites in Cleveland Church

Stuart — Miss Grace Deon Allyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Allyn of Stuart, became the bride Sunday, November 30, of Luther Leroy Lakey of Chicago, Ill., son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lakey of Reynolds, at a 2 p.m. ceremony at the Cleveland Presbyterian church north of Stuart. Re. Herbert Young officiated. One hundred-fifty guests were present.

The church was decorated with pine boughs and holly leaves and candles. The bride wore a gown of imported Chantilly lace and tulle over satin. The sabrina neckline of the basque bodice of lace was patterned with iridescent sequins and long sleeves tapered to bridal points over the hands. Beneath the narrow waist, the iridescent sequins were repeated on lace floral appliques to trim the extremely bouffant skirt of alternate panels of lace and tulle.

Her veil was an heirloom crown of pearls with tulle illusion cascading to the waist. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

Matron-of-honor, Alice McClurg, of Lincoln, sister of the bride, wore a waltz length dress of jade-ette crystal with a contrasting cummerbund of spring mint. The gathered skirt and cummerbund cascaded down into the balloon skirt effect.

The bridesmaid, Miss Jean Allyn of Stuart, sister of the bride, wore a dress similar to the matron-of-honor, only in spring mint. They both carried bouquets of tangerine carnations.

Calvin E. McClurg of Lincoln, was bestman, Richard Keidel of Stuart was the attendant and Charles Sweet of Stuart was an usher. They wore dark business suits.

Deborah Allyn of Stuart, a cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. Another cousin of the bride, Robert Slaymaker of Stuart, was ring bearer.

Following the ceremony, a reception was given in the church parlors by the bride's parents. Mrs. Elmer Allyn was hostess. Mrs. Arlin Caster of Sidney assisted her. Mrs. Herbert Sweet cut the cake. Misses Sandra and Mary Slaymaker of Stuart and Betty Zink were servers. Mrs. Delbert Gentele had the guest book.

Out of town guests were from: Sidney, Wewela, S.D.; Lincoln, Hebron, Chester, Crete, Norfolk, Bassett and Atkinson.

Following a wedding trip, the couple will make their home at 1322 W. Actmora ave., Chicago, where Mr. Lakey is associated with an investment company.

For traveling the bride chose a gray chemise suit with black accessories.

The bride is a 1958 graduate of the Bryan Memorial school of nursing in Lincoln and was employed at Bryan Memorial as a nurse.

The bridegroom was a 1958 graduate of the University of Nebraska college of business administration.
