

Parish Children in Christmas Program

EWING—The children of the St. Peter's Catholic church parish presented a Christmas program at St. Dominic's hall Sunday evening under the direction of Mrs. Leonard Knapp and Mrs. Jerry Rotherham, sponsored by the Christian Mothers.

Program numbers were:

A one-act play, "There Will Always Be a Reindeer", by Tom Sotka, Patty Munn, Debbie Yelli, Gorka Van Connet, Carmen Walnofer, Roger Miller, Mardella Vandernick, Terry Yelli and Terry Walnofer.

Song: "The Hokey Pokey", by the primary department.

One-act play, "The Cowboy's Best Christmas", Allan Chmiel, Dennis Thoendel, Mike Munn, Paddy Regan, Ronnie Funk, Lynn Rotherham, Sherry Savidge. A song, "Silent Night", by the primary department.

Solo, "We Have Heard the Angels on High", by Karen Mlnark with Patty Hobbs, accompanist.

There was an interruption in the program with a telephone call for Mrs. Knapp and Mrs. Rotherham. It was from Santa, who announced that he expected to reach St. Dominic's hall on schedule. To continue the program until that exciting moment, John McCarville of O'Neill showed films featuring the Christmas season. The films also included Christmas carols sung by everyone present.

Santa arrived in a car. In his pack he had treats for the boys and girls.

On the stage was a Christmas tree which had been donated by the K-B Market and had been put up and decorated by Kermit Jeffries.

Ewing Churches in Combined Service

EWING—Family night was observed Sunday evening at First Methodist church. Members and friends attended the evening service of the United Presbyterian church. The Presbyterian pastor, Dr. William H. Ross, used as his theme, "Abiding in Christ", for the sermon with scripture reading from John 15:1-10.

Mrs. Keith Bidlecome led the inspiration featuring Christmas hymns.

Mrs. Ralph Shrader gave a reading, "The Judean Hills" with a music accompaniment played by Mrs. Wilbur Bennett.

Gordon Shrader, Kay and Tom Hutton assisted Mrs. Bidlecome with the carols.

A fellowship hour in the church parlors followed the services. Lunch was served.

Hiatt's Vision Shows Improvement

AMELIA—Arthur Hiatt, 82, has been doctoring this year at Hastings for eye cataracts. He was attracted to a Hastings doctor by a story he had read in The Frontier concerning a cornea transplant for Mrs. Henry Meyer of Clearwater (about a year ago).

Mr. Hiatt says the Hastings specialist is making real progress with his case and Friday he drove his own car into O'Neill.

While in O'Neill Mr. Hiatt renewed his subscription to The Frontier and ordered a gift subscription for his daughter, Mrs. Viola Traver, 230 East 10th st., Long Beach, Calif.

Mr. Hiatt was born in Indiana, spent part of his childhood in Saline county (near Crete) and spent some time in Iowa.

He came to Holt in 1896 and vividly remembers all the old-timers. He observed that he, Frank Pierce and Harry White are about the only early settlers still living in the area.

Box Social Held at Amelia School

AMELIA—The program and box social at the Amelia school Tuesday evening, December 9, was well attended and enjoyed by everyone.

Mrs. Harold Fulberton won the lucky, which was given to the lucky name drawn. Proceeds from the box social netted about $60.

AMERICAN HOSPITALS ASSOCIATION

The American Hospital Association, says that hospitals can solve some of their personnel shortages by employing the handicapped and the elderly. A study made at the Albert Einstein medical center shows that the medical records and achievements of the disabled often surpass those of normal personnel.

Mrs. P. B. Harty will leave Friday for Neenah, Wis., to spend Christmas with her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Harty and daughter.
