

Sick & Injured

EWING—Mrs. Pauline Noffke, who has spent the past several months with members of her family while convalescing from a broken hip, is now at her home in Ewing. She is able to get about with the aid of a crutch and does much of her own work. . . Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Fry took Al Gibson to the veterans hospital at Grand Island Friday for a checkup. He returned home with them and is to go back to the hospital January 7.

RIVERSIDE—Will Shrader is suffering intestinal flu and is under the doctor's care at his home. . . Dave Pollock became suddenly ill early Saturday and was taken to the Neligh hospital for observation. He was found to be suffering from kidney inflammation and was "better" Sunday. He remained in the hospital, however, for additional tests.

EMMET—Ed Etherton suffered a broken leg in a hay cabling accident last week. . . Mrs. Eva Grothe entered St. Anthony's hospital Saturday. . . Mrs. Elmer Alder is sick with a bad cold. . . Mrs. Raymond Richards was ill with the flu the forepart of the week. . . Janet Newton is out of school with a bad cold.

INMAN—Mrs. Kenneth Kestenholtz left Tuesday for Omaha where she entered university hospital. She is still there. . . Mrs. Lloyd Smith was dismissed from Atkinson Memorial hospital Friday where she was a surgical patient for 10 days.

VENUS—Mrs. William Vrooman is "improved". About three weeks ago Mrs. Vrooman fractured her ankle in a fall at her home and was a patient at the Lundberg Memorial hospital at Creighton for several days.

AMELIA—Mrs. Vern Sageser entered St. Anthony's hospital in O'Neill Thursday evening and submitted to major surgery Friday morning. . . Bob Adair entered the Veterans hospital in Grand Island Friday. He is suffering with a heart ailment.

DELOIT—Mrs. Ralph Tompack accompanied her mother. Mrs. Myrtle Jewell and Bill Jewell to Omaha on Tuesday where Mrs. Jewell consulted a specialist concerning her eyes on Wednesday.

O'NEILL—Mrs. W. B. Gillespie broke her arm. . . George Winkler returned Tuesday evening from Omaha where he had gone for a medical check.

REDBIRD—Mrs. Clay Mashino went to Sioux City Sunday evening to be near her father, who is in a hospital there.

Four Teams Enter Spencer Tourney

SPENCER—The annual Spencer invitational cage tourney will be held Thursday and Friday, January 1 and 2, with two games each night.

In the first round, Stuart Broncos and Page Eagles will clash at 7 o'clock, and at 8:30 Spencer—the host team—will face the strong Inman Tigers. These games will be played Thursday.

Friday night the losers will play at 7 o'clock and the championship game will be played at 8:30.

Mary Miller and Vernon Carpenter of O'Neill high school will officiate.

Why not consider a gift subscription for THAT family this Christmas?

Atkinson to Host 9-Team C Tourney

ATKINSON—The annual district class C basketball tourney will be staged here February 23-24-25-27. Teams entered are Atkinson, Stuart, Springview, Ewing, Tilden, Elgin St. Boniface, Spencer and Butte.

Games will be played at 7 and 8:30 o'clock nightly. Officials have not yet been chosen. Coaches and superintendents met Wednesday night at O'Neill to make preliminary plans.

Teams will be seeded and matched Saturday, February 7 at 10 a.m. when coaches and superintendents will again meet.

Valentine Makes Strong Finish

STUART—In a dandy ball game played here Tuesday night, the Valentine Badgers rallied to win, 54-37, over the Stuart Broncos.

The game was tied at halftime and Stuart moved ahead briefly in the third before Valentine poured on the cobs.

Butch Bauman lead the Stuart offensive with 16 points. Nathan Swiftbeard, an Indian, paced the Badgers with 16.

Stuart travels to Naper Saturday night.

Lynch Measures Atkinson, 56 - 27

ATKINSON—The Atkinson high Balers lost to Lynch, 27-56, Wednesday night, December 10, and triumphed over Long Pine, 53-46, Monday night.

In the Lynch game played here, the visitors took a 12-1 first period lead and went ahead 26-13 at halftime. At the end of the third it was 44-16. Vic Pickering shoveled in 22 points to pace the Boyd countyans, while Roger Dobias had nine for the Balers, who simply couldn't get going.

Friday night the Balers outscored Springview in the third period, 14-7, and won 39-37 over the Keya Paha county Indians (Spring-view). Ken Prussa fired 13 points to lead the Balers, who assumed a 30-24 lead in the third stanza. Monday night's game was played in Long Pine's city hall. The Long Pine gals won two-out-of-three volleyball games from Atkinson.

Cage Calendar

Most prep ball teams in Frontier Land will be wrapping up pre-holiday play this weekend.

On Friday night: Long Pine will travel to Wood Lake. O'Neill high hits the road and visits Atkinson high. St. Mary's of O'Neill will host St. Joseph's of Atkinson. Butte will be entertaining Lynch in a Niobrara Valley conference game. Royal will tackle the strong Inman high Tigers at Inman. St. Ludwig's of Creighton will play Elgin St. Boniface at Elgin. Wood River will be travelling to Burwell and the Page Eagles will host the Clearwater Cardinals.

Wayne high will pay a call on the Plainview Pirates. On Saturday night: Stuart Broncos will play at Naper.

Miss Martha Chocholousek of Verdigre is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Victor Halva, in O'Neill for a few days.
