Africa Wedding, Life in Alaska to Be Discussed

PAGE—A special service of remembrance was conducted Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Lisle Mewmaw at Page Methodist church for Aunt Lou Heiss, using the theme of "The Open Door". In scripture reading, poetry and song, the thought was brought out that those who have gone before present themselves at the open door, candidates for a better life. We reap the harvest of their planning.
The lesson, "If the Heart Is Filled with Christmas," was presented by Mrs. Harry Harper assisted by Mesdames Elmer Trowbridge, Jesse Kelly, Edgar Stauffer, Ray Prill, Mervyn French, sr., Raymond Heiss, and J. W. Finch, jr., gave meditation on remembrance, good will, charity, love, praise, forgiveness and peace. As each finished their meditation they hung their cards on the Christmas tree.
Mrs. Cordes Walker gave a musical reading while Mrs. Lisle Mewmaw played, "Oh Come All Ye Faithful".
During the business meeting, presided over by Mrs. Jesse Kelly, president, announcement was made of the mission study to be given each Sunday evening in January. Hawaii and Alaska will be the study countries. The program will be varied by the tape recording of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll French's wedding. Mrs. Irl Todd will speak on life in Alaska. The mothers will have until little more than a year ago.
The mid-winter, MYF institute will be held at Page December 28. The mothers will prepare and serve all meals at the church kitchen.
