Savidges Enjoy Stay in Nassau

EWING—Mr. and Mrs. Harold Savidge returned home recently from a trip to the Bahamas Islands, sponsored by the J. I. Case company for territorial managers and other employees.
 The Savidges went to Omaha and left there by plane the following day on a nonstop flight in a large plane, making the trip in about six hours to the Islands.
 Upon landing at the capital city of Nassau, the program for the dealers' conference moved into high gear with a continuous round of activities day and night.
 The party made the Emerald Beach hotel its headquarters. Business meetings were held at the Case outdoor arena and auditorium.
 The day's program began at 7 a.m. with breakfast at the Emerald Beach dining room, followed by a day's activities including swimming, (ocean or pool), beach games, boat excursions with picnic lunches, motor excursions through the colorful old-world city of Nassau, deep sea fishing.
 Dinner each evening at the Emerald Beach Jubilee Terrace was followed by professional entertainment and dancing.
 Mr. and Mrs. Savidge especially enjoyed the tour of sightseeing in and around the colorful British city. They saw many historical places such as the old forts, the Queen's Staircase in the center of the city (carved from solid rock by slaves), Ardastra Gardens where the owner has a flock of 50 trained flamingoes (the national bird of the Bahamas), Blackbeard's Well, Blackbeard's Tower and many other places with guides who gave interesting information on each.
 On a shopping tour souvenirs were collected and gifts purchased to bring home.
