Kay Louise Coventry Becomes Bride in Church Ceremony

INMAN—Poinsettias and light tapers decorated St. Peter's Catholic church in Omaha Saturday, December 27, for the marriage of Miss Kay Louise Coventry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Coventry of Inman, and William D. McElvain, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. McElvain of O'Neill. Father O'Donnell officiated at the 9:30 a.m. double-ring ceremony.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, appeared in a grey wool tailored street dress with which she wore a white fur hat and gloves. Her bouquet was white carnations on a white missal, a gift from the bridegroom. Miss Margaret McElvain, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. She wore a red wool dress with a white feathered hat and white gloves. Her bouquet was white feathered carnations and stephanotis.

Brother of the bridegroom, John McElvain, was bestman. He and the bridegroom were attired in charcoal grey business suits with white carnation boutonnieres. John Berigan ushered.

The bride's mother wore a tangerine wool jersey dress with brown accessories and a corsage of gold carnations. The mother of the bridegroom wore a brown wool dress with brown accessories and her corsage was also gold carnations.

A three course luncheon followed at 11 a.m. at the Town House. The bride's table was centered with a white three tier wedding cake decorated with small pink roses and bells and topped with wedding bells.

The bride is a graduate of the Inman high school and attended Wayne State Teachers college for two years. She is at present teaching third grade at Monmouth Park school in Omaha.

The bridegroom is a graduate of St. Mary's academy in O'Neill. He spent two years in the army, attended the University of Nebraska for 1 1/2 years and at present is attending Electronic Engineering Institute in Omaha.

For the present, the couple will make their home at 546 South 26th St., apt. 2, Omaha.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included: Mr. and Mrs. James R. Coventry and son, Bill of Inman; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. McElvain and son, John, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Everitt and son, Jackie, Jerome Gallagher and John Berigan, all of O'Neill; Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Hartigan and George Klewin of Norfolk and Miss Margaret McElvain of Omaha.

Doris Elaine Bogue Serviceman's Bride

ATKINSON—St. John's Lutheran church in Atkinson was the scene Friday, December 26, of the 8:30 p.m. double-ring ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Doris Elaine Bogue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Bogue of Atkinson, and Gerald M. O'Connor, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald O'Connor of Atkinson.

Rev. Emil Kuehn, pastor, officiated at the candlelight ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floorlength gown of lace and net featuring a lace bodice with long sleeves tapering to points at the wrist and edged at 11:00 at the Town House, darin collar. Her veil was held by a lace cap trimmed with seed pearls. She wore a pearl necklace and earrings, a gift from the bridegroom. The bride carried a cascade bouquet of mums.

Miss Jane O'Connor of Atkinson, sister of the bridegroom, was maid-of-honor. She appeared in a green crystalettte dress with the neckline bias fold tapering to a V in the back. The long bodice with a full gathered skirt had a bias fold at the hip line that was caught with a bow. She and the bridesmaids carried colonial bouquets to harmonize with their dresses.

The bridesmaids, Miss Alice Berger of Omaha and Miss Connie Werner of Chambers, a cousin of the bride, wore dresses styled identically to that of the maid-of-honor, in shrimp and gold crystalettte respectively. The brides attendants each wore a pearl necklace and earrings, a gift from the bride.

Sandra O'Connor of Atkinson, sister of the bridegroom, was the flower girl. Danny Olson of Atkinson, nephew of the bridegroom, was the ring bearer.

Richard Bogue of Rapid City, S.D., brother of the bride, was bestman. Groomsman were James and Joe O'Connor, brothers of the bridegroom. Ushers were Dale Bogue and Delbert Olson and the candlelighters were Dennis and Peter O'Connor, brothers of the bridegroom. The men wore grey suits with carnation boutonnieres.

Miss Maxine Pacha, soloist, was accompanied by Miss Carol Pacha. They were former pupils of the bride.

The bride's mother chose a royal blue wool crepe dress with navy accessories for her daughter's wedding.

The bridegroom's mother wore a black and white wool dress with black accessories. They both wore corsages of white mums.

Following the ceremony a reception for 150 guests was given by the bride's parents in the church parlors. Mrs. Hans Bogue, aunt of the bride, baked the wedding cake. It was served by former pupils of the bride, Janith Gans, Bonnie LeMunyan, Anita Morgan, and Clara Thurlow.

The cake was cut by the bride's cousin, Mrs. Kenneth Huston. The Misses Minnie O'Connell and Phyllis Welch took care of the gift table. The guest book was in charge of Mrs. Delbert Olson, sister of the bridegroom.

For her wedding trip, the bride wore a blue wool suit with black accessories.

The bride was a graduate of Atkinson high school in 1932, and Norfolk Junior college. She has been teaching since her graduation.

At present she is teaching at the Blue Top school.

The bridegroom was also a 1932 graduate of Atkinson high school. He is now in the army and is stationed at Ft. Lewis, Wash.
