Did You Remember Shutins with Cards?

ROCK FALLS—Inasmuch as this reporter didn't get the news roundup turned in last week there may be some items which are carried over that might be of interest.

With last minute shopping and various preparations for the coming holidays, there wasn't too much in the line of news.

Did you all remember to send a card to that shut-in or hospital patient? In case you forgot, isn't too late yet and it might bring a little ray of sunshine to a less fortunate soul.

From all of us at our house to everyone at your house, a merry, merry Christmas!

Widow of Chambers Banker Is Honored

CHAMBERS—Mrs. Edward Adams, widow of a longtime Chambers banker, was honored on her 85th birthday anniversary Wednesday, December 24, in an open-house affair from 2 until 4 o'clock at her home, arranged by her four daughters.

Mrs. Adams resides in the "old Adams home". Seventy-seven relatives and friends registered and Miss Doreen Gled, who attends Morningside college at Sioux City, received and registered the arrivals.

Mrs. Adams' maiden name was Sarah McMillin. She was born December 24, 1873, on a farm near Bennett, about 15 miles from Lincoln. Her parents were Thomas A. McMillin and Sarah Jane Hunt McMillin.

At the age of nine she moved with her parents by covered wagon to a farm near the present site of Page. She attended rural school and was reared in that locality. On May 7, 1890 she was married to Edward Adams, who was associated with Gene Smith in the lumber and banking business.

In 1901 Mr. Adams sold his interest to Mr. Smith and moved to Stuart where he spent the summer working for the William Krotter company.

On November 1, 1901, the family moved to Chambers where Mr. Adams founded the Chambers State Bank. He headed the institution until his death April 20, 1941, having been in the banking business more than a half-century.

Mr. Adams died 18 days before he and his wife would have celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Adams became the mother of 11 children—seven of whom are now living. All but one, Joan M. Adams of Austin, Tex., were present for the open-house event.

Mrs. Adams' other living children are: Mrs. J. E. (Lovena) Grimes of Chambers; Leo T. who is vice-president of the First National Bank of Atkinson; Mrs. Lloyd (Leona) Gled of Chambers, who is active in 4-H club work; John of Austin, Tex., who is in municipal subdivision real estate work; Glenn, who is president of the Chambers bank founded by his father; Mrs. Arthur (Ethel) Walters, a teacher in the O'Neill city schools; Mrs. E. J. (Wilma) Salstrand of Turlock, Calif., a teacher at Turlock.

Leo and Leona are twins.

Deceased children are: Albert, who died in 1920 at the age of 25; Miss Jennie, a Baptist missionary nurse who was executed by the Japanese military during the Nippon invasion of the Philippine Islands early in World War II; Harold, who died at the age of 18-months; and Irwin, who lived on the original Adams family farm in Ohio, near Plain City, and died in 1944.

Mrs. Adams counts 19 grandchildren and 27 great-grandchildren. She had maintained her home in the same dwelling in the east part of town for 57 years. She shared the home with Mrs. Bert Lybolt. They have separate apartments, and do their own housework.

Mrs. Adams has been a member of the Methodist church 46 years and has been a faithful member. She enjoys excellent health and conducts devotional meetings of her church circle.

Her closest friends are obliged to search hard to find a gray hair as she appears to be much younger than four score and five.

Mrs. Grimes poured coffee at the reception; Mrs. Salstrand served punch and Mrs. Walter and Mrs. Gled served the anniversary cake.
