

Patricia Ann Wright, Pvt. Delbert Carl in December Nuptials

EWING — Miss Patricia Ann Wright and Pvt. Delbert Carl, Jr., were married Saturday evening, December 27, at First Methodist church in Ewing. Rev. Glenn Kenricott, pastor of the Methodist church in O'Neill, officiated at the 7:30 o'clock candlelight double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wright of Ewing. The bridegroom is the son of Delbert Carl, sr., also of Ewing.

Mrs. James Good, pianist, played a prelude of traditional music. She accompanied the vocal soloist, Miss Netta Lee Maben, cousin of the bride, who sang "Benedictus" preceding the ceremony and the "Lord's Prayer", at the close of the ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of white embroidered tulle over silk taffeta with a fitted bodice buttoned at the back, cut to a point at the front. Her gown featured a high sash and neckline of patterned lace embroidered in a rose design. The long fitted sleeves were pointed and crushed at the wrist. The very bouffant skirt shirred full at the waist and worn over hoop petticoats, repeated the patterned lace in deep shirred tiers that cascaded the full length of the skirt at the front. A wide flange of patterned lace fashioned the side panniers. She also wore the traditional something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue.

The bride carried a bouquet of white carnations and holly.

Mrs. Donald Drey of Omaha, sister of the bride, was the matron-of-honor. She wore a street-length gown of blue taffeta with matching headband. She carried a bouquet of white mums.

The bridegroom was attired in his army uniform. Royce Wright, brother of the bride, was the best man. Ushers were Marvin Carl of Omaha, brother of the bridegroom, and Donald Drey, also of Omaha. The attendants wore white carnation boutonnieres.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the parlors of the church, attended by 60 friends and relatives.

Poinsettias were used in the decorations.

The three-tier wedding cake, which centered the refreshment table, was flanked by candelabra and was cut and served by Miss Ruby Carl, sister of the bridegroom.

Miss Kay Butterfield of Lincoln, cousin of the bridegroom, poured. Mrs. H. R. Harris, Mrs. Fred Maben, Mrs. Galen Maben and Mrs. J. L. Pruden served.

Misses Vivian Wright, Bethel Daniels, Vera Del Daniels and Shirley Wright were in charge of the gifts.

Miss Linda Tuttle had charge of the guest book.

The bride chose a suit of grey and yellow with matching accessories for traveling. Upon their return to Ewing, Private Carl will leave for Ft. Knox, Ky., where he will be stationed. Mrs. Carl will remain at the home of her parents in Ewing.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl have spent virtually all of their lives in Ewing, graduating together from the Ewing high school with the class of 1938.

Private Carl enlisted in the army in August, taking his first weeks of training at Ft. Carson, Colo.

Mrs. Harry McGraw entered the Antelope Memorial hospital at Neligh Tuesday, December 23, and underwent major surgery the following morning.

AMELIA — Mrs. Harry Winings is a patient in the O'Neill hospital. She entered Friday.

Johnson Suffers Head Concussion

Leland H. Johnson, 18, of Nebraska City, husband of the former Wilda Stamp of Inman, suffered a head concussion Christmas day in a one-car accident two miles west of Ewing and 7 1/2 miles south on a country road.

His brother-in-law, Louis Stamp of Ewing, suffered lacerations and also was hospitalized.

Johnson was driver of the car—a 1932 Mercury. It was southbound when it went out of control and overturned.

Louis was released Sunday and Johnson was dismissed Monday.

Mrs. Clifford Vetter of Basset was injured Wednesday, December 24, when a car driven by her husband and one driven by Alice Schroeder of Burwell figured in a collision near Burwell. Mrs. Vetter was taken to the Burwell hospital where she still is hospitalized. Her husband was treated for minor injuries and dismissed.

Alice Schroeder and Cathy Schroeder were also admitted to the Burwell hospital and were released on Christmas day.

Gayle E. Witherwax, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Witherwax of Redbird, fractured his thigh bone Tuesday, December 16, in a motorcycle accident. He submitted to surgery one week later in Brooks army hospital at Ft. Sam Houston, Tex.

He had planned to spend the yule holidays at Redbird.
