Mrs. Merton L. Dierks . . . December bride in church rite in Kansas.

Gloria Lee Zoeller, Merton L. Dierks Wed at Manhattan

EWING—The altar was banked with poinsettias at the Seven Dollars Catholic church at Manhattan, Kans., for the Saturday, December 27, wedding of Miss Gloria Zoeller and Merton L. Dierks. Rev. William Merchant officiated at the 10:30 a.m. double-ring ceremony and nuptial mass.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Zoeller, 241 Summit, Manhattan, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle P. Dierks of Ewing. Mrs. John Collister was the organist and accompanied Miss Juanita Silva, soloist, as she sang "Pans Angelus", "Ave Maria", and "Oh God of Loveliness".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a candlelight Italian silk (Dupioni) floor-length, full-length sleeves, a deep scooped neckline with a single row of seed pearls edging it. The bridal veil, elbow length of silk illusion, fell from a cloche-type headpiece edged with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis with white satin streamers centered with a white cattleya orchid.

Miss Mary Alys Dierks of Norfolk was the maid-of-honor. Mrs. Paul A. Waters of Omaha was the bridesmaid. Both are sisters of the bridegroom. Their identical gowns were ballerina length, of red satin. They were fashioned with three-quarter length sleeves and cummerbunds of the same material. They wore shoes tinted in matching colors. Their head bands were red satin with flowers. Each carried a bouquet of white poinsettias.

Janet Zoeller, niece of the bride, in red satin, was the flowergirl.

She also wore a head band like that of the maid-of-honor.

Donald Zoeller, brother of the bride, was the bestman. Paul A. Waters of Omaha, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was the groomsmen. Ushers were Dr. Robert D. Zoeller and John L. Zoeller, brothers of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a light blue wool jersey gown with white accessories.

The bridegroom's mother chose a jade green velvet dress with matching accessories.

Each wore a white rose corsage.

A reception was held at the Sunflower room of the Wareham hotel, Manhattan.

The bride's table was centered with the all white wedding cake surrounded by holly, flanked by candelabra. Miss Irene Reiner was in charge, assisted by Miss Barbara Schneider, Mrs. Robert Zoeller and Mrs. John Zoeller.

The bride chose for traveling, a black and white tweed knit suit with matching accessories.

After a honeymoon trip to Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Dierks will be at home at 531 Thurston st., Manhattan, Kans.

The bride is a graduate of the Sacred Heart academy, Manhattan, Kans., and at present is a senior in English at the Kansas State college, Manhattan.

The bridegroom is a graduate of the Ewing high school and has his bachelor of science degree from the University of Nebraska.

He is now a sophomore student in veterinary medicine at the Kansas State college, Manhattan.

Out-of-town guests attended the wedding from: Wamego, Wichita, Mission, Kansas City, Marysville, Ness City, Pratt, Junction City, Topeka, Linn, Salina, Westmoreland and St. George, in Kansas; St. Louis and Kansas City, Mo.; Watseka and Chicago, Ill.; Ewing, Norfolk and Omaha.

Eagles Setback by Springview, Neligh

State's Best in B in Close Call

Coach Bill Edwards' O'Neill high Eagles dropped two games during the past six days by nearly identical scores.

Keya Paha county Indians (Springview) Friday night came to town and emerged with a 44-38 win, and Tuesday night the Neligh Warriors escaped with a 43-37 victory.

Springview 44; O'Neill 38

The Blues started strong in Friday's battle but yielded leadership to the Indians, 22-21, at halftime. Forgy was a standout for the winners with 20 points.

O'Neill reserves won the preliminary, 45-17. Stan Schmiechel and David Elmer tallied eight each for O'Neill.

Neligh 43; O'Neill 37

Neligh, ranked number one in state class B cage circles by the Omaha World-Herald, might have been upended here Tuesday night had the Warriors' tall boy, Bill Brungart, 6-6, been chased earlier. He left the game after the foul route late in the fourth after getting 13 points.

The Maroons held the upperhand all the way—15-10 at the quarter, 24-18 at halftime, and 35-25 at the end of the third. But O'Neill spurted in the finale and hit 12 points.

O'Neill seconds registered a 41-27 win over the Junior Warriors. Jim McClellan and Jerry Dexter hit 10 each for the winners. Krebs tallied seven for Neligh.
