

Meal-Serving Enables $100 WSCS Profit

PAGE—Reports were heard on the midwinter Methodist youth fellowship institute and the school of missions Thursday, January 15, when members of the Women's Society for Christian Service met in an all-day session which included noon refreshments.

Mrs. Merwyn French reported on the institute. A profit of one-hundred-dollars was realized from the meals served by the mothers and WSCS members.

Mrs. J. W. Finch, jr., told of the school of missions in progress Sunday evenings during January. Sunday's topic was "Alaska". Mrs. W. Iri Todd told of highlights of the years she spent with her family in Alaska. The study will conclude Sunday, January 25, with "Hawaii" as the topic.

Mrs. Norman Saliz led the lessons on religions—Islam, Hinduism and Buddhism. Mrs. William Ragland spoke on the status of women. Mrs. Elmer Trubridge told of matters pending in the 83d congress. Purchase of new dishes was discussed.

Extension Club in All-Day Meeting

PAGE—Members of the Page Extension club entertained their husbands in an all-day meeting at the home of Mrs. H. S. Harper Tuesday. A no-host dinner was served at noon.

The men attended the township election in town after dinner and the ladies held their January meeting.

Roll call was answered with a story or an article they had read. A lively discussion followed some of the thought-provoking articles. A donation was voted for the march of dimes drive now in progress. Mrs. Raymond Heiss will be the hostess for the meeting February 17.

500-700 Cattle Expected

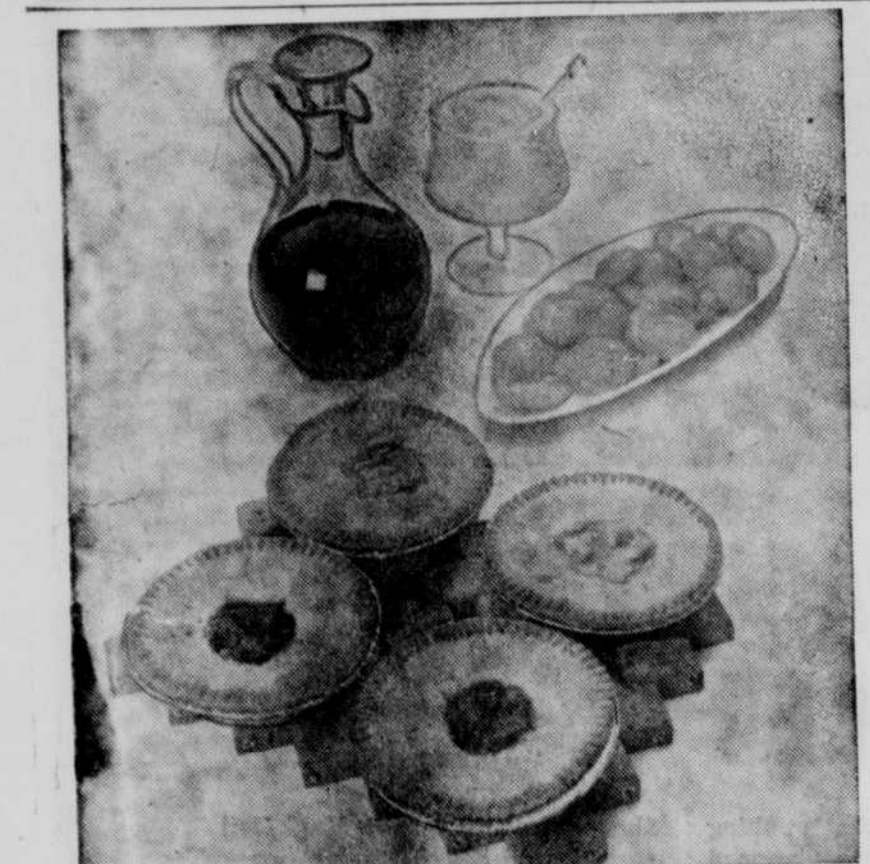

We are planning for 500 to 700 head of feeder cattle today (Thursday) provided weather conditions do not cause a worsening of road conditions.

There'll be 44 head of yearling steers from O'Neill; 46 Hereford cows, heavy springs, some with calves at side; 35 head of steer calves; 30 head of black and black-whiteface yearling cattle from Bristow; 22 roan heifer calves; 22 mixed yearlings from Atkinson; and numerous other consignments ranging from five to 25 head.

Buyers will find a lot of good steer and heifer calves on this sale.

Hog sale starts at 12 noon.

HERE'S a 1959 formula for fun. During those seemingly endless winter months invite the new neighbors into your home for a "get acquainted" evening. Part of your fun will come from good food—part from casual conversation around the fireplace.

Keep supper simple so you have time to "visit". Individual frozen meat pies... piping hot from the oven... can be carried to the table in their own aluminum containers. With a choice of beef, chicken, or turkey... all baked at the same oven temperature for 40 minutes... each guest is free to make his favorite selection.

The first forkful will reveal something different in flavor because there's a "surprise in the pie"... burgundy in the beef, sherry in the chicken and turkey pies. The method is this:

Party Meat Pies
About 10 minutes before baking time is up, remove pies from oven.

With sharp knife cut a hole in pastry about 1 1/2 inches in diameter. Remove pastry. To each beef pie, add 1 teaspoon burgundy. To each chicken or turkey pie, add 1 teaspoon sherry. If necessary, push aside some of the filling so wine will seep through. Replace pastry. Return to oven; continue baking 10 minutes or until crust around opening is browned.

Plan the rest of the menu on the same simple theme. Most people enjoy salad or something crunchy to nibble on... like celery, carrot sticks or other vegetable relishes. For dessert try this easy colorful recipe:

Minted Apricots
Chill 1 can (1 pound 13 ounces) unpeeled apricot halves. Spoon into serving dishes. Partially whip 1/2 cup heavy cream. Add 2 tablespoons mint jelly; continue whipping until soft peaks form. Top apricots with cream. Makes 4 or 5 servings.

Page Pulls Upset of Year on St. Mary's

O'Neill, Page, Inman and Ewing are semifinalists in the 22d annual Holt county basketball tournament in progress here this week.

Semifinals will be played tonight (Thursday) with Inman Tigers facing Ewing Tigers 7 o'clock, and O'Neill high Eagles attempting to subdue the upset-minded Page Eagles at 8:30.

Finals will be played Friday night with third place playoff at 7. All games are being played at the O'Neill high rink.

Monday's Games

Ewing 42; Chambers 24
Coach Tom Hutton's Ewing Tigers turned in a surprising show of strength in Monday night's Holt county cage tourney opener, defeating Coach Wayne Geserich's Chambers Coyotes, 42-24.

Ewing clamped a tight defense on the Coyotes who were having miserable luck from the field. Chambers hit only five fielders in a bushel of tries. Ewing led all the way.

Chambers hit 14 of 27 free-throws and Ewing cashed only 16 out of 35. Boxscore:

It was a David-and-Goliath act in Monday's almost incredible nightcap which saw the smaller, thin-ranked Page Eagles rise to new heights and polish off the pre-tourney favorites—the St. Mary's academy Cardinals. Page won 45-39.

St. Mary's, having lost only one game this season (to Spalding) was ticketed to go the route and add the 1959 Holt cage crown to its state eight-man grid championship.

But the Eagles from down Page way, pepped by a large and loyal following, took a different view. Early the game see-sawed and the Eagles finally got the idea the Cards were not invincible.

Page led 26-20 at halftime and 31-27 at the end of the third. The Cards couldn't do much correctly although Larry Tomlinson meshed 18. Clair Parks potted 19 for Page. Dennis Kemper, 14.

Headed Ralph Simmons, a transfer from California eligible for varsity play for the first time, aided Page. Boxscore:

O'Neill 54; Stuart 47
It was a mild sort of an upset in Monday's second game as the O'Neill high Eagles ousted the strong Stuart Broncos, 54-47. Stuart started strong and finished strong but in-between the Blues built a 14-point lead.

Stuart led 12-9 at the first quarter and O'Neill moved ahead 22-19 at halftime. O'Neill owned a 43-29 bulge at the end of the third.

Jim Larson, Larry Oetter and Larry Donlin collaborated for 42 points for O'Neill. The Eagles annexed 14 of 23 gratis tries; Stuart had a better percentage—19 for 29. Boxscore:

Tuesday's Games

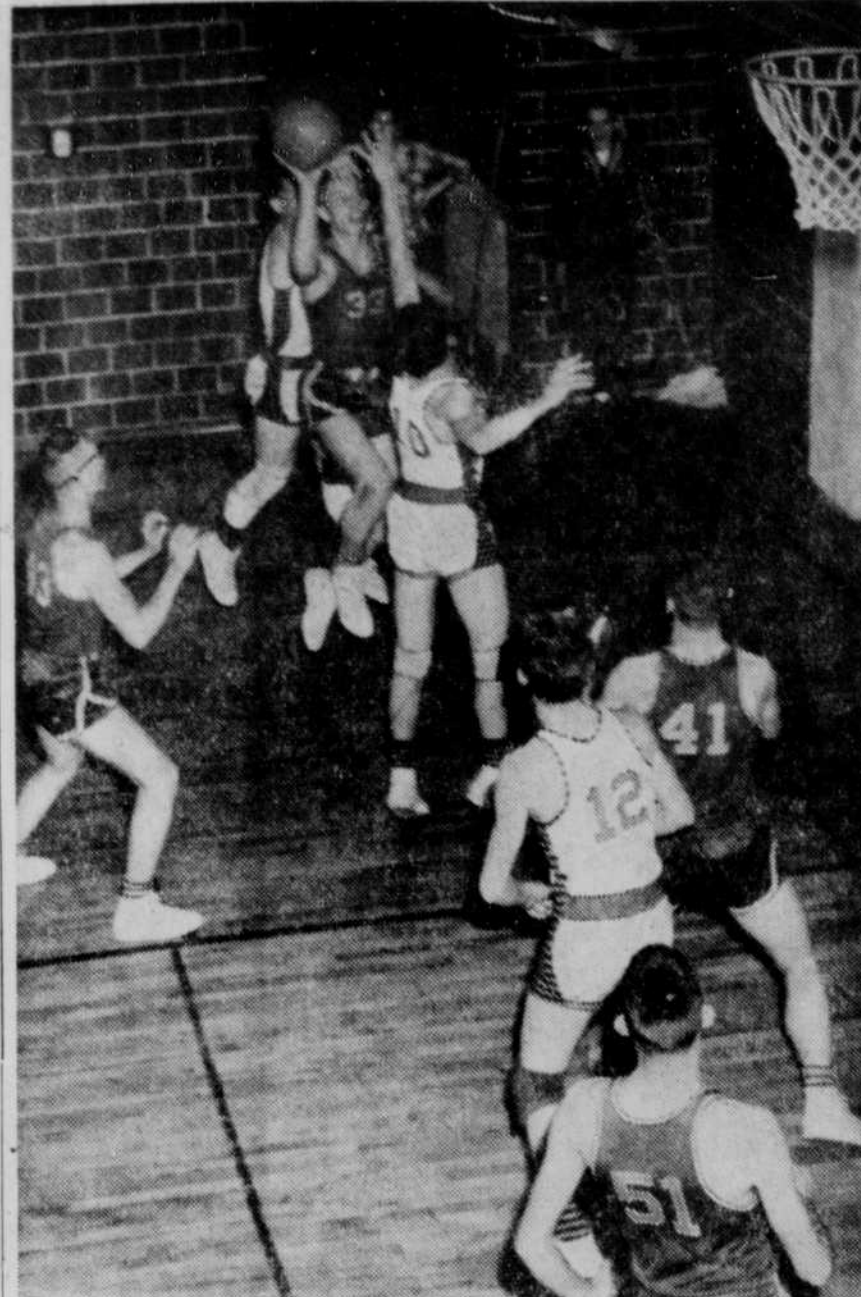

Inman 57; Atkinson 48
Coach Bill Miller's Inman high Tigers made it 15 wins compared to only two losses thus far this season as they bounced the Atkinson Bakers, 57-48, in Tuesday's curtain-raiser.

It was a sweet ballhawk named Dick Appleby who paced the win for the Tigers. Appleby hooked 16 points and set up plenty of others with outstanding floor play.

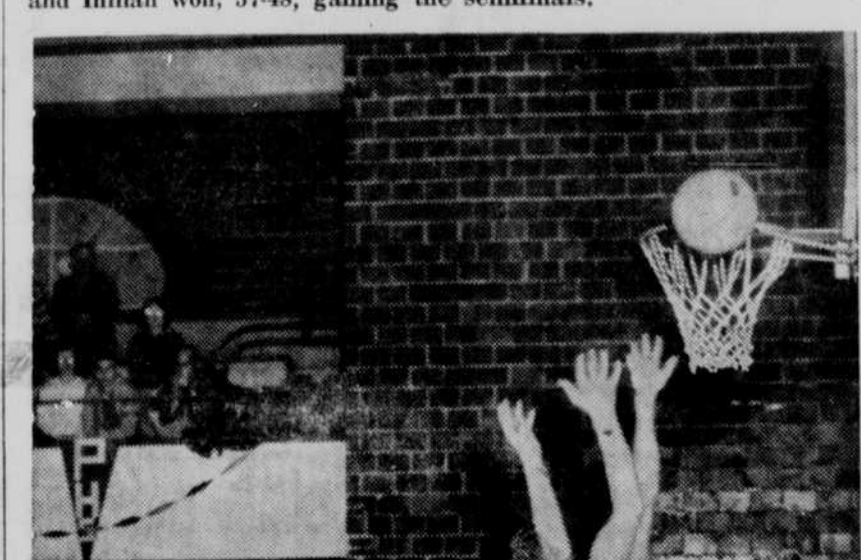

Ken Prussa, Atkinson long fellow, tallied 15 for the losers. The

Chambers Downs Page in Thriller
CHAMBERS—Coach Wayne Geserich's Chambers high Coyotes eked out a 41-40 win over the visiting Page Eagles here Friday night.

Jim Cavanaugh paced the Coyotes with 10 points—registered four fielders and two gratis tips. Dennis Parks was best for Page with 16—four fielders and eight free-throws.

Chambers led 32-22 at halftime. The Eagles' second-half assault was cut short by the final gun.

The Coyotes, having won one (over Page) and lost six will travel to Inman next Tuesday night. Geserich concedes he'll have to build a bonfire to stay in the game with Bill Miller's Tigers.

Ainsworth in Seeded Spot in NCNC Meet

AINSWORTH—Top-seeded team in the North Central Nebraska tournament here starting February 2 is Ainsworth, the league leader.

Ainsworth will meet the Long Pine-Cork winner on the second day. Another first-day game sends Bassett against Atkinson. The Springfield-Stuart clash rounds out opening pairings.

Cornbelt Tourney Starts Next Week

In basketball play next week: Tuesday—O'Neill high travels to Ainsworth; Atkinson will entertain Bassett; Chambers goes to Inman; Butte will host Fairfax.

Clearwater, Ewing and Meadow Grove will be involved in Cornbelt conference tourney play January 26-30 at Madison.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bazelman entertained the following guests in their home over the weekend: Friday evening Sam Edwards of Tekamah, Saturday Miss Eunice Van Horn from Mt. Marty college at Yankton, S.D., and dinner guests Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Reed of Orchard.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rothchild of Atkinson visited their daughter, Mrs. Dick Tomlinson last Thursday.

4 O'Neill Boxers in Norfolk Tourney

Four O'Neill boxers head the early entry list for the northeast Nebraska golden gloves tourney at Norfolk Wednesday, January 28, a one-night affair. Only the first four entries in each class can be accepted, according to Director Dave Lesser of Norfolk.

The O'Neill entries, sponsored by Simonson post 93 of the American Legion, are Roland Claussen, 118 pounds; Butch Pofahl, 136; Dean Pofahl, 135; and Larry Cleary, 147.

Meanwhile, Legion club manager Bill White has a block of seats assigned to O'Neill fans. These ducaats are on sale at O'Neill's Legion club.

St. Mary's Spills Butte Club, 62 - 55

The St. Mary's academy Cardinals Friday night turned back the Butte Wildcats, 62-55, in a Niobrara Valley conference game played at Butte.

Gale Stevens tallied 18 points for the winners with Larry Tomlinson pressing with 16. Larry Mudloff registered 14 and Ronnie Holly connected for 10.

Russell Luth was best for the losers with 15.

Butte led 16-14 at the first quarter and SMA moved ahead and kept a 10-point spread for the distance.

Butte reserves won the preliminary, 32-29.

Inman Downs Ewing in 47-44 Thriller

EWING—Inman high downed Ewing Friday night, 47-44, in one extra period of play. The game was played at Ewing before a big crowd. High point man was Inman's Bob Rutherford with 18 points.

Larry Rotherham connected with 14 points for Ewing; Leon Hahlbeck had 13 points for the losers.

Ewing was without the services of Jerry Hahlbeck, who hurt his ankle in the Orchard game.

Inman was in front 28-20 at halftime.

Inman annexed three freethrows in the overtime—all the points scored in the extra inning.

Inman's second team lost to Ewing, 41-39. It was the first defeat for the Inman reserves in two seasons.

BRONCOS TRIUMPH

STUART—The Stuart high Broncos Friday night defeated the Keya Paha county Indians (Springview), 69-57. Stuart led at one stage by 18 points.

BUTTE WALLOPS NAPER

BUTTE—The visiting Naper high exasers were no match for the Butte Wildcats here Tuesday night. Butte won, 74-59.

KELLEY HOT

INMAN—Ned Kelley, former Inman high cage ace, tossed 16 points to help Norfolk Junior college defeat Doane, 75-53.

CLEARWATER WINS

CLEARWATER—The Clearwater Cardinals Friday night posted a 43-41 cage win over Oakdale.

Spencer Wins Boyd Crown Hard Way

Downs Favored Butte, Lynch for Crown

SPENCER—The Spencer high Pirates downed Butte, 67-51, in the first round of the Boyd county tourney last week.

Spencer the underdog of the meet, jumped to a 20-10 first quarter lead. Butte came back strong in the second quarter, led by T. Freed, to cut the score to 34-30 at half time.

Spencer increased the lead, 42-35, at the end of the third. In the fourth, Spencer hit 13 of 18 free-throws to win, 67-51.

In the Butte-Spencer game, Johnson and R. Kopecky had 18 points, followed closely by L. Kopecky with 15. For Butte, Luth led with 17.

In the second game of the night, a good Lynch ball club led by three big seniors—Soulek, Sexta and Pickering—had little trouble disposing of Naper, 66-49.

Soulek hit 27 for Lynch followed by Pickering with 12. For Naper Kutzer had 18 and Sattler had 11.

The Pirates were obliged to down both favorites. Lynch and Butte, two night in a row, to win the Boyd county cage tournament.

Spencer with its underclassmen had to win the hard way, after blowing a 10-point lead at half-time.

Lynch with five starting seniors, trailed at the end of the first quarter, 11-7. At half time, Spencer led 29-19, but in the second half it was all Lynch, as a smaller Spencer ball club, having played three games in five nights, began to tire and Lynch was able to control both boards.

Lynch was able to outscore the Pirates 22-17 in the third quarter to cut the lead down to 46-41. In the fourth quarter, Lynch went ahead, 49-48, with less than a minute left.

Little 5-6 freshman Ronnie Kopecky hit the winning basket to make the score 50-49.

The leading scorer for Spencer was Leonard Kopecky with 22, Johnson with 15.

For Lynch, all the scoring was done by the big three—Soulek with 21, Pickering with 17, Sexta had 11.

In the consolation game, a red hot Butte team downed Naper, 71-45. Butte was led by Terry Fried, who had 16, followed by Lyle Luth with 11. Kutzer had 18 for Naper.
