

Marlene Kruse,
Fred R. Mitchell
United at Albion

STUART — The Zion Lutheran church at Albion was decorated with floor baskets and altar vases of white gladioli for the wedding of Marlene Kruse of Columbus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kermit K. Kruse of Albion, and Fred R. Mitchell of Columbus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Berlin Mitchell of Stuart.

Rev. C. E. Schaff officiated at the 3 o'clock double ring ceremony. Mrs. Sever Johnson was organist and accompanied Miss Dorothy Blaser, who sang "Because" and "The Wedding Prayer".

Candlelighters were Ronald Kruse, brother of the bride, and Norman Choat, cousin of the bride. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white nylon net over satin. The fitted lace bodice was designed with long fitted sleeves and a scalloped portrait neckline with a scattering of opalescent sequins. Flower appliques were scattered over the voluminous skirt.

Her double-tier veil of imported French illusion was held in place by a crystal tulle edged with crystal braids.

Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls and matching earrings, a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of white gladioli on a white ribbon, also a white lace edged handkerchief, borrowed from her mother, as she carried out the old tradition of something old, new, borrowed and blue.

Miss Janet Kruse, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor and wore a ballerina length turquoise gown of lace and net over satin fashioned with a strapless cuffed bodice with a chiffon stole. The lace skirt over net and satin, featured side panels of gathered chiffon. A turquoise headdress, white wrist length gloves and pearl earrings completed her costume. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations.

Warren Mitchell of Lincoln, brother of the bridegroom, was bestman. Marvin Mitchell of Omaha, brother of the bridegroom, and Dale Kruse, brother of the bride, were ushers.

The men wore dark suits and white carnation boutonnières. The bride's mother wore an aqua and black tweed wool dress with three-quarter-length sleeves. The bridegroom's mother chose a grey suit dress. Each wore a white carnation corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors. The bride's table was centered with an arrangement of white pom-poms flanked by turquoise and white candles. The three-tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom, was baked by Mrs. Harold Babcock. Mrs. Herman Rojahn and Mrs. Norman Peterson cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Kenneth Peterson poured coffee.

Miss Arlene Bock and Mrs. Jack Eilers served punch. Misses Rosemary Schumacher and Karla Speckman served the bride's table. Other servers were Misses Judy Choat, Linda Furby and Sandra Furby, assisted by ladies of the church. Miss Martha Kruse and Mrs. Elmer Choat were hostesses for the reception. Mrs. Paul Bruegger, sister of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. Miss Gladys Marty, Miss Maureen Bailey and Mrs. Roger Walker arranged the gifts.

Mrs. Mitchell is a graduate of Albion high school and is presently employed at Dale Products, Inc., at Columbus. Mr. Mitchell was graduated from Stuart high school, spent two years in the army, 16 months of which was in Korea, and is now employed at the state department of roads in Columbus. Following a wedding trip to the Ozarks, the couple will reside at 1622 Seventh st., Columbus.

Rock Falls News

Hi, everybody! How are you and all your family? Did you get over those colds yet? The case of most everyone around here, they barely recover from one when they come down with another. Wonder if it would help this generation, if they drank some of grandmother's sassafras tea.

This is written in a flurry of an overnight 6-in. snow fall and below zero temperature. Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Vequist and Mr. and Mrs. Don Hynes attended the card party Friday night in the card party room, sponsored by the PTA members with proceeds going toward payment on a projector for the school. The affair was well attended with nine tables of cards in progress. The children were entertained in the basement, viewing films part of the time. Refreshments were served to all. Mrs. Art O'Neill is the teacher.

Miss Rita Vequist was babysitter for Jamice, Tommy, Lynda and Shelley Hynes in the Hynes home Friday evening while the parents were at the card party. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Deriekson and boys were Wednesday, January 14 supper guests of the Don Hynes family. Mr. and Mrs. Swede Wabbs came there later in the evening.

Tuesday evening guests of the Lyle Vequist family were Mr. and Mrs. Art O'Neill and Mr. and Mrs. Jim McNulty. The evening was spent playing pinocle. It was reported that no championship was established.

Mesdames Albert and Don Sterns and the latter's daughter, Debbie, were Thursday callers at the James Curran home and joined the family at dinner.

Gale Taylor and son, Dean, were calling in the neighborhood Friday and had dinner with the Floyd Johnson family.

Mrs. Lou Brown called on Mrs. John Schultz Tuesday morning, January 13. The Eagle Creek 4-H club met at the O. J. Druce home Sunday with all members present. New officers were elected for the coming year. One new member, Marty Druce, was admitted and one older member, Mary Joe, Curran, dropped out.

Mrs. Lou Brown had dinner Thursday with her mother, Mrs. Doris Hynes, in O'Neill. Mrs. Hynes has been ill with the flu the past while. Her daughter, Mrs. Jim Tangeman, is spending the week with her.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schultz and girls were Friday evening visitors at the Sam Deriekson home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Turner and daughter, Betty, were Sunday afternoon visitors at the Henry Vequist home.

Mrs. John Schultz was one of the ladies who accompanied their husbands of the O'Neill Locker Bowling league, to supper at the Town House Sunday. They all went bowling for the remainder of the evening.

Gwendolyn Trudy and Debbie Schultz spent Sunday evening with the Albert Widfeldt family while their parents were bowling.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hynes and girls called on Mrs. Doris Hynes Sunday evening in O'Neill. Sunday supper and evening guests of the Floyd Johnson family were Mr. and Mrs. Gale Taylor and Dean and Lester Waterman. The evening was spent playing pitch with the score being tied, which calls for another get-together to sort of get things settled one way or another.

Jimmy Widfeldt was a Tuesday after-school guest of Terry and Cindy Brown.

Hollenback on Mission—Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bazelman received word Sunday that SP4 Jack Hollenback will be spending this week in Indiana on operation Gerontomancer. He is stationed at Ft. Campbell, Ky.

Jim Judd Narrowly Escapes in Wreck

PAGE — Jim Judd of Lincoln struck loose gravel as he was returning to his home from visiting his mother at Ashland.

The car went up an embankment, rolled over three or four times and tore down a highway sign. He was pinned under a door for 1 1/2 hours until Ashland men found him. They were returning from Wahoo, where they had spent the evening bowling. They took him to the hospital and notified his wife.

X-rays and examination disclosed only cuts and scratches on his back and legs. He was released the following day. Mrs. Judd is the former Nora Moore, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stevens of Page. The car was a total wreck.

Harper to Chicago for Air Training

PAGE—Gordon Harper, a former Page resident and formerly owner and operator of the O'Neill airport, went to Chicago, Ill., shortly after Christmas where he will spend six months with federal aviation agency. During that time he will attend a refresher course at Oklahoma City, Okla., conducted every year for aviation maintenance inspectors.

Gordon is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harper of Page and for several years has been employed at Lincoln and Omaha in maintenance work.

Mrs. Harper will remain in Omaha. The Harpers have two daughters, Mrs. Jim (Sandra) Jarmine of Bassett, and Miss Jeanette, at home.

Discuss Signs for Blind Corners

PAGE—The Verdigris township meeting was held Tuesday afternoon at the IOOF hall at Page. A. G. Braddock was reelected for road overseer.

The township board reelected in the November election, included Novels Ickes, Jr., justice of peace, and chairman of board; Elmer Trowbridge, clerk, and Orville Kemper, treasurer. A discussion was held concerning placing stop signs on blind corner intersections.
