

3-2-6-4 is the word for it as Larry Oetter scores a fancy bucket for the O'Neill high Eagles in Friday's title game with the Inman Tigers (won by Inman).—The Frontier Photo by Larry Frisch, 16-year-old staff photographer and an O'Neill high senior.

Larry Rotherham (44) pots this two-handed jump shot for the Ewing Tigers as his crew downed Page for third place honors in the Holt cage tourney. Eagles are Clair Parks (35), James Nissen (31) and Ronald Parks (22).—The Frontier Photo.

Saunders Farmer Principal Speaker

Ralph Raikes of Ashland, a member of the board of directors of the Eighth farm credit district, Omaha, and past president of that board, is to be the featured speaker at the Elkhorn Valley National Farm Loan association's annual stockholders' meeting, it has been announced by Lyle P. Dierks, association secretary-treasurer.

In addition to the operation of an 1,100-acre farm in Saunders county, Mr. Raikes has a cattle and hog feeding operation, grade A dairy herd and is a producer of hybrid seed corn and certified small grain seeds.

Holt Group Will Step Inside Mexico

The national convention of soil and water conservation district supervisors will be held at Houston, Tex., February 1-5.

Mr. Dierks states that registration for members and invited guests will begin at 10 a.m. at the Royal theatre.

They will board a chartered bus at Grand Island at noon Friday, January 30.

Points on the tour also will include the Southwestern exposition and fat stock show, Corpus Christi naval air base, King's ranch, a tour of the Rio Grande valley and the soil conservation districts' research farm. They will attend Charro Day fiesta in Brownville, Tex., and will visit Matamoros, Mexico.

The group will return to Nebraska February 10.
