Letters to Editor

Bentonville, Ark.
After the issue that carried the editorial supporting Faubus, Postmaster Ira Moss should downgrade The Frontier. You northern editors must have been served up some mountain dew to fall for the Faubus line.

Am enclosing two clippings. One is from a sensible man from Nashville, Ark. The other shows the type of buffoon that is found in every legislature. I've marked some passages to show how these witch doctors work. The reporter mentioned worked for The Arkansas (Little Rock) Democrat, which has been a Faubus booster. This may set you to thinking, which is doubtful.

—RALPH N. LEIDY

Chamberlain, S.D.
Just heard the news on your program that you sold the paper. We'll miss your voice as we nearly always listened.

Remember when I sold subscriptions and Cleary Bros. wanted to trade a beef roast for a subscription?
—MRS. LAW. STORJOHANN

Atkinson, Nebr.
Never until I went to stack my surprise announcement Frontier with the others did I become so keenly aware that I was filing something with a distinct personality. There was the choice of front page material, the frank discussions on the editorial pages, makeup . . . these things we'll miss.

—MRS. JOHN SILVERSTRAND
Atkinson, Nebr.
Mrs. Stewart: We're sure going to miss your so gentle and sincere voice that gives the hospital news on WJAG. I will miss you and Cal very much.
MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM FRYREAR

THE PLAIN TALK
Vermillion, S.D.
Dear Cal: Have just read of your sale of The Frontier. I have that same feeling every Wednesday.

BUTTE WINS
LYNCH—The Butte Wildcats defeated Lynch, 62-61, in a thriller Friday night at Lynch.
Phone us your news — 51.

The entire O'Neill high student body participated in a Friday afternoon pep rally that was ticketed to help the Eagles knockoff Inman in the finals of the Holt county cage tourney. Cheerleaders went from classroom-to-classroom to recruit enthusiasts for a human chain that ultimately threaded through the buildings. This hoopla (above) capped the rally.—The Frontier Photo.
