Marjorie Rahn, Walter Miller Are United at Atkinson

ATKINSON — Miss Marjorie Rahn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Rahn, of Atkinson, and Walter Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Miller, also of Atkinson, were united in marriage Saturday evening, January 31, at 7:00. The couple took their vows under a white arch trimmed with pink and blue carnations and topped with a white bell. A bouquet of pink roses was placed on both sides of the arch. The ceremony took place at the Wesleyan Methodist church with Rev. Walter Stienkamp officiating.

Miss Josie Adams was pianist and accompanied Jim Hendricks, soloist from Hastings, as he sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mr. Hendricks is a cousin of the bride.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a blue princess street length dress of rayon, two and one-half inch wide ribbon covered with small pink flowers and white ribbon streamers. The Bible was a gift from Rev. and Mrs. Walter Stienkamp.

Miss Mavis Rahn, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor. She wore a pink princess street length dress with a corsage of small blue flowers.

Rev. William Miller, of Wayne, brother of the bridegroom, was bestman. Jerry Hendricks was the candlelighter and James Hupp, of Atkinson, was usher. All the gentlemen in the wedding party wore white carnation boutonniers.

The bride's mother chose a teal blue dress and wore an American Beauty corsage and her grandmother, Mrs. Sadie Hupp, wore navy blue with a red rose corsage.

The bridegroom's mother wore a blue sheath dress and a desert rose corsage.

A reception for about 130 guests was held in the church basement, which was decorated in the bride's colors.

Three Good Reasons for Preparing Colorful Molded Salad

Now that canned cranberry juice, frozen cranberry-orange relish and cottage cheese are so plentiful in markets, you have three good reasons for preparing this colorful molded salad, says Bill Perry, local supervisor of the Meadow Gold Dairy. It is a tart hand salad that goes nicely with all poultry or beef entrees.

It has a layer of creamed cottage cheese sandwiched between two layers of bright, crunchy cranberry mold. A sprig of parsley is all that's needed to enhance its appearance, according to Beatrice Cooke, director of the Meadow Gold test kitchens in Chicago, where the recipe was developed.

DOUBLE CRANBERRY SALAD
(Six to eight servings)
1 package lemon flavored gelatin
1 cup hot water
1 cup cranberry juice cocktail
1 10-ounce package frozen cranberry-orange relish, partly thawed.
1/2 cup diced celery
1/2 cup chopped pecans
1 1/4 cups creamed cottage cheese
3 tablespoons mayonnaise.

Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Stir in cranberry juice cocktail and relish. Chill until partly thickened. Add celery and pecans. Lightly oil individual salad molds. Fill one-third full with gelatin mixture. Chill until partly set. Beat together cottage cheese and mayonnaise until well mixed. Spread about 3 tablespoons cheese mixture over each gelatin layer. Top with remaining gelatin mixture. Chill until firm. Unmold. 41c
