Although oysters are now eaten virtually year around, it's during the popular "R" months that they reach their savory best. You can easily find them in February either fresh, frozen or canned points out Owen Parkinson, local salesman of the Meadow Gold Dairy, who sent us this elegant new recipe for Golden Oyster Casserole.

Buttermilk is the secret flavor-maker, according to the creator of the recipe, Beatrice Cooke, Meadow Gold's test kitchen director. It lends moisture to the dish as well as an interesting tang.

Golden Oyster Casserole
(Six servings)
2/3 cup uncooked rice
2 tablespoons butter
3/4 cups liquid (oyster liquid plus buttermilk)
1 teaspoon salt
Dash pepper
1/2 teaspoon crushed rosemary
1/2 teaspoon seasoning salt
1 pint oysters, drained
3/4 cup fine cracker crumbs
1/4 cup butter
Paprika

Brown rice in 2 tablespoons butter. Add liquid and seasonings; heat until hot. Pour into a buttered 1 1/2-quart casserole. Cover and bake at 324 degrees for 40 minutes. Roll oysters in cracker crumbs and brown in butter. Spoon on top of rice. Sprinkle with paprika. Bake uncovered 20 minutes longer. Note: If using precooked rice, use 1 cup rice. 42c
