Bid or Bye Club

Entertains Husbands—Members of the Bid or Bye club entertained their husbands Sunday evening at the Page Improvement club building.

At cards Mrs. Harold Kelly and Jerome Allen held the high scores. Mr. and Mrs. Allen played in the place of Supt. and Mrs. William Hock who had a previous engagement. Lunch was served.

Faculty and Team Celebrate Victory—The members of the High school faculty and their wives and the first ten boys on the basketball squad celebrated their victory over St. Mary's team and the fourth place position in the Holt county tournament by having supper at the Town House at O'Neill Saturday evening.

Those in attendance were Supt. William Hock, Coach and Mrs. Ron Park, assistant coach and Mrs. William Schiltz and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Goodart.

The basketball honorees were James Nissen, Clair Parks, Dennis Kemper, Dennis Cork, Ralph Simmons, Ronnie Parks, Dennis Ickes, Fred Cronk, Rodney Kennedy, Jon Cork and Leroy Clancy.

Salvation Army Drive Nets Total of $125—Mrs. J. R. Russell, treasurer of the Salvation Army unit at Page was in charge of the drive for funds in behalf of that charity. A canvas was made of the town and the out-laying school districts which resulted in a total of $125. $100 was sent to Omaha division and the balance kept to be used in emergencies at the discretion of the local officers.

Carl Max is the chairman at Page. Thanks are due to the district representatives and to Mrs. C. P. Leach who assisted with the town canvass.

Polio Drive Brings $253.56—PAGE—Cordis Walker announces the grand total of $253.56 in the 1959 Polio drive. The following organizations donated: Individual gifts—$12.35; The American Legion auxiliary Help-U club, Neighborhood club, RNA and Kensington, Get Together club, Rebekah lodge and Page extension club totaling $19.00.

A Sports event including a $20 sale of peanuts—$90.87; Two Coffee Hours, sponsored by Mesdames Harry Harper, Allen Haynes, C. P. Leach and I. O. Wood and the benefit card part sponsored by the Page Improvement club totaling $65.31.

The chairman wishes to thank the Page school and the I O O F lodge for the rent free accommodations and their support, the town treasurers, the Volley Ball Gals and any and all who helped in any way to make the drive a success.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Trowbridge and family, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Trowbridge and children and Mrs. A. O. Weber were Sunday dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Trowbridge in honor of Mrs. Trowbridge's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Park were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Neven Ickes, jr. and children. In the afternoon the group went to Orchard for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Park and daughters of Kearney who came to attend the 25th wedding anniversary observance of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thelander.

SUPPER GUESTS—Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Harvey and sons, Mr. and Mrs. William Neubauer and Mrs. Anna Sorensen were Thursday evening supper guests in the home of Mrs. Hester Edmisten.

Mesdames Emma Kemper, Frieda Asher and Hester Edmisten were Mrs. Anna Sorensen's Friday evening guests for a few hands of cards. Mrs. Sorensen has been confined to her home since her recent hospitalization.

Mrs. Hester Edmisten earned the high score Friday afternoon when the members of the GGG&G club were guests of Mrs. I. O. Wood for a pitch playing session. Mrs. Anton Nissen took home the low token and Mrs. Otto Mattschulat received the traveling award. Mrs. Bert Finley will be the February 20 hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bridge moved Monday to Orchard to the home they recently purchased which was the home of the late Mr. and Mrs. Billy Harmon. Ronald Grass helped move the brooder house there Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Asher are the buyers of the Bridge farm which adjoins them on the west. A farewell party was held Saturday evening, January 31, at the A. T. Crumly home in their honor. Cards furnished the evening's interest. Mrs. O. Wiseman and Charles Wiseman held high scores while Bonnie Crumly and Ronald Grass were the winners of the low score awards.

W.S.C.S Meet At Methodist Church

Mrs. Jessie Cronk and Mrs. N. D. Ickes, sr. were coffee hostesses Thursday when the members of the W.S.C.S met at the Wesleyan room of the Methodist church for an all day meeting. Mesdames J. W. Finch, Jesse Kelly and Fanny Stewart also shared the kitchen work.

Mrs. Raymond Heiss had the devotions and the lesson on "Literacy and Christian Literature". Recognition was given of the need for literature to follow up the ask of learning to read among the under-privileged countries.

Mrs. Elmer Trowbridge explained the work of Frank Laubach in simplifying the reading process and the slogan that "each one teach one" which quickly reduced a group's illiteracy, leaving a need for the right kind of reading material which of necessity, needed to include methods of cooking, nursing and general living as well as that of a religious nature.

Mrs. J. W. Finch also cited the work of a deaconess in preparing the natives for a more satisfactory way of life.

Mrs. Jesse Kelly presided over the business meeting when announcements were made as follows: February 13—A quiet hour will be observed at the Wesleyan room between the hours of 2:30 and 3:30 in conjunction with the World Council of Churches program.

Mrs. Lisle Mewmaw announced that the study of the Prophet Isaiah will begin February 19. The class will be held in the chapel from 10 to 11:30 a.m. with Mrs. Mewmaw in charge of the study. A covered dish dinner will be served at the Wesleyan room that day at noon. Emphasis will be given to the work of quilting.

Mrs. Kelly read a letter from the national president of the Woman's Division of Christian Service, Mrs. Fount Tillman, concerning crusade scholarships, asking that the collections taken during the week of evangelism and dedication be allocated to this fund for the education of students who would go back to their country as teachers.

The annual meeting of the W.S.C.S will be held at the Trinity Methodist church at Lincoln, March 17, 18 and 19. Members are urged to attend.

Rev. Bell of Ponca will be in charge of the evangelism program. Supper will be served to the participants at the church by members of the King's Daughters.

A vote was taken on a choice of patterns of dishes in the process of being purchased. The final decision was left to the members of the dish committee. Fifty place settings will be purchased by the W.S.C.S, the same by the King's Daughters and a dozen by the MYF.

Some discussion was held on the matter of the presentation of a membership pin, the identity of the honored member to remain anonymous for the present.

A card was signed for Mrs. Elsie Cork on her birthday anniversary and one was sent to Clifford Leach with good wishes for his better health.

Mesdames Harry Harper, Allen Haynes, Clarence Stevens, Jessie Cronk and Leila Snell were guests of Mrs. Jesse Kelly Wednesday afternoon, February 4, for a quilting session. Lunch was served.

Members of the RNA lodge met in regular session at the IOOF hall Wednesday evening, February 4. A card shower for Mrs. Elsie Cork, a patient at St. Anthony's hospital, was announced for her birthday anniversary Thursday, February 5. Mrs. Frieda Asher and Mrs. Anton Nissen served refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Kelly and daughters, Ruth, and Mrs. Anna Thompson were Thursday supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Art Grass and family. The occasion was their 13th wedding anniversary, and the birthday anniversary of Mr. Grass.

Mr. and Mrs. Soren Sorensen, jr. and daughter, Kathy, of Ash Grove and Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Ickes, sr. were Friday dinner guests in the home of the latter's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Neven Ickes, jr. The men attended the Martin Mosel sale in the afternoon.
