Bowen Boy Home After Lincoln Honors

By Mrs. N. D. Ickes

Because of a news item Bruce Bowen and his dog "Nip" were honored on a TV station in Lincoln and was awarded a plaque and a gold medal on the Lassie program Wednesday evening.

Bruce, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Bowen, his brother, Gary, and his twelve year old bob-tailed dog, "Nip" were visited on an expense free trip to the capital city for an appearance on television and a tour of the town.

Bruce also was interviewed at a radio station and the recording was heard later in the day as they drove through Lincoln on their way to their next appointment.

The Bowens left Page Tuesday afternoon, picked up Gary at Wayne where he is a student at WSTC and registered at the Cornhusker hotel barely in time to be ready when Mrs. Gladys Forsythe, president of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association sent her chauffeur and Oldsmobile to take them to the Country Club for a seven o'clock dinner.

Expecting to dine quietly, perhaps at the Cornhusker, they were surprised to say the least to find themselves dinner guests along with Dean Lambert of the College of Agriculture, West Ames, state 4-H leader, Dr. Rogers, president of Wesleyan university, James Howard, sports editor, ex-senator Mrs. Hazel Abel and daughter, Alice, Mr. Dobson, president of the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce, and others. The men's wives were also guests.

Mr. Dobson told them that his construction company paved the streets of O'Neill and constructed the municipal swimming pool there. Mr. Joyce Ayers, advertising agent, was in charge of the program and conducted Wednesday's tour.

Wednesday the Bowens attended a press conference in the basement lounge of the First Federal Savings and Loan Building in a 9 a.m. session and Bruce had an interview at a radio station.

At 9:30 they were met at the state house by senators Frank Nelson who introduced them to Governor Ralph Brooks. He also introduced the members of the state legislature, in session at the time. They also visited the Supreme Court. The Governor presented Nip with a plaque and each was made an Admiral in the mythical Nebraska Navy.

At 10:45 they were due at the Lincoln air base where Lt. Hodges selves a very fortunate family.

The members of the Woman's Auxiliary at Page will sponsor a benefit Heart Fund card party at the Legion hall Friday evening, Feb. 20th, beginning at 8 p.m. Games will be offered in pitch, pinocle and bridge. Prizes will be awarded the high and low scores. Lunch will be served by the auxiliary members. A free-will offering will be taken.

Mesdames Sidney Faulhaber, George Jeffries and Kenneth Waring were co-hostesses Tuesday evening with Mrs. Otto Mutschulat at the Mutschulat home for a family party of the members of the Help-U club.

Six tables of progressive pitch were in progress. Mrs. Oris Casky and Mrs. Kenneth Waring who played in the place of a gentleman held the high scores and Mrs. George Jeffries and Francis Boelter were contenders for the low score tokens while Mrs. Ethel Waring received the traveling award.

A no-host lunch was served.

All members and families were present except Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Finch and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brookhouser.

Frank Cronk, Carl Max and Robert Nissen served refreshments Tuesday evening following a routine meeting of the Rebekah lodge at the IOOF hall.

Mr. Garhardt Leubeke returned from Ft. McClellan, Ala., Saturday Feb. 7, where he spent a short side trip to tour the Wesleyan University campus. They arrived at 4 p.m. at the First Federal building where Mrs. Forsythe had arranged a reception for those children who cared to come and meet Bruce and his dog. The North Wind Eagle scouts were hosts.

The reception was concluded at 5 p.m. and they were taken back to the Cornhusker hotel for a short rest period. At 7 p.m. they went to KOLN for their 7:30 p.m. scheduled appearance on the Lassie program.

Bruce was presented a framed citation and a gold medalion. Mrs. Forsythe gave him a saving's account, a roll of 1958 pennies and a roll of the new 1959 Lincoln pennies which she assured him would surely be collector's items in the future.

This year is the Abraham Lincoln sesquicentennial anniversary the centennial for the city of Lincoln and the fifth anniversary of the Lincoln air base.

The speakers at the Tuesday evening dinner expressed the hope that they might be able to impress the out-staters with the importance of getting the best in education and the necessity for choosing the best of the nation has to offer for the Air Force selection. Therefore the various institutions and organizations were interested in families and the choice they make for self betterment.

The Lassie program directors are constantly on the look-out for news items such as the one that prompted them to invite the Bowens to Lincoln. They investigated the authenticity of the story telling of Bruce sending his dog "Nip" to the house with his mitten fastened to a wire with a torn strip from his coat and wired to the dog's collar. Bruce's mother saw the dog wandering in the yard and investigated the queer look, then quickly got the car and picked up her husband who was loading hay on the meadow and they went in search of their son. Bruce was headed for the shelter belt to bring greenery home for decorative purposes and overturned the tractor as he was crossing the ditch into a field.

Another tractor equipped with a loader was needed plus the aid of a neighbor to accomplish his release.

As much of a thrill as the trip to Lincoln the entertainment and the honor conferred it in no way compared with that they experienced when they extricated Bruce from his predicament and found him to be un-hurt except for scratches, bruises and exposure to zero weather. They consider them-
