Willing Workers Meet
 The third meeting of the Willing Workers 4-H club was held Friday evening at the National Guard Armory. There were forty-two members and parents present.
 The following committee reports were given: Marvin Dawes, health chair, gave milk dringing a new twist when he introduced a contest. He also explained the importance of it to daily life. He also gave a practical example. "Thing of milk as rosy cheeks, white teeth, and straight legs." The object of the contest is to see who can drink the most milk. He passed out paper milk bottles which are to be checked whenever we get our quart of milk a day.
 Irene Nelson gave a resume of facts about Fire Prevention. Other project reports were given by Jim Reimer—Beef; David Dawes—Let's Cook; Dianne Gillespie—Cakes and Pies; Lynn McCarthy—Meal Planning III; Mary Jo Walker—Baby Sitting; Virginia Walker—Let's Cook (Girl's group); Dianne Gillespie—Skirt and Blouse; and Beth Kramer—Let's Sew.
 After the business meeting, Lee Brady gave a meat cuts demonstration, in which he explained where the different cuts come from, of both beef and pork.

 Bob Kramer was in charge of recreation. He had two sets of riddles, one for the over-eleven group, and one for the under-eleven year olds.
 Harry Spall, local game warden, had a wonderful color movie about Conservation of Wildlife.
 After the meeting, lunch was served by the Brady's and the Reimer's.

The Goose Lake 4-H Club met at the home of Donna and Patricia Habel March 13 evening.
 Everyone except Shirley La Rue answered roll call by naming something they had done to help in the kitchen. Everyone vited for Billy Tomjack and Norma Brewster to join the club.
 We elected Darrell Brewster as recreation chairman.
 Everyone got to taste the cinnamon toast and cocoa our leaders taught us to make.
 Before the business meeting, we all had fun playing games and singing songs especially the "Doughnut Song."
 Marie Hearle was a visitor.
 At our next meeting we are to bearn the 4-H pledge. It is to be held April 17 evening at the home of John Summer.
