ROYAL THEATER

Thurs. Apr. 2
Family Night
"The Black Orchid"
Sophia Loren, Anthony Quinn, Ina Balin, Jimmie Baird, Mark Richman.
This movie owes a little to Marty and a lot to the amazing charm of Anthony Quinn who plays a widower with an about-to-be-married daughter (Ina Balin). She was perfectly content to think of marrying Mark Richman and moving to Atlantic City with him (he owned a shop on the boardwalk) until Pop got a twinkle in his eye over widow Sophia Loren. That awful woman! shouts Ina. Pop! How could you! Whereupon she locks herself in her room, coming out only to set the table.
Family admitted for two adult tickets—Adults 50c, children 15c.

Wed. & Sat. Apr. 3-4
"The Trap"
Technicolor
Hidden among the brooding hills, an invisible menace... tightening its grip around the four—closer, closer!
Richard Widmark into it. Lee J. Cobb, who triggered it. Tina Louise who played "bait" for it. Earl Holliman who tried to buy out of it. Carl Benton Reid, Chuck Wass.
Adm: Adults 50c, Children 15c. All children unless in arms must have tickets.

Monday, Tuesday, Apr. 5-6-7
"The Inn Of The Sixth Happiness"
Cinemascope Color by DeLuxe & Buddy Adler Production starring Ingrid Bergman, Curt Jurgens, Robert Donat.
What is the "Sixth Happiness"? Each of us must find it in our own hearts!
Love and Faith that touched heaven with its being—Earth with its miracle!
A woman's story as monumental as "A Man Called Peter", as inspiring as "I'd Climb The Highest Mountain."
Adm: Adults 50c Children 15c. All children unless in arms must have ticket.

Supper Club at Coles'
Supper club members were entertained at the Mrs. Bud Cole home March 28 in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John Baker, Omaha. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lou Reimer, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Don Becker, Dr. and Mrs. Harry Gildersleeve and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Smith, Lincoln.

Seventy Youth Attend Easter Sunrise Service
Approximately 70 Presbyterian and Methodist young people gathered at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning at 6 a.m. for an Easter Sunrise service and breakfast. The breakfast was prepared and served by women of the two churches.

Thompson Sisters Married In Ord

Miss Shirley Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Thompson, Amelia, became the bride of Arthur De Wolf, Kimball, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Turner, North Platte, at 1:30 p.m., March 28, at the Methodist church in Ord. Rev. Martin performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of the immediate families.

The bride wore an embroidered lavender street length dress with lavender and white accessories. Her corsage was of red roses. Miss Evelyn Thompson, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a yellow street length dress with a corsage of red roses.

The bridegroom wore a gray business suit. Gerden Fischer, North Platte, was best man. The bride's mother was attired in a gray dress trimmed in white with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The bride is now a teacher in the rural schools of Valley Co. The bridegroom has been engaged in farming since serving in the army. They will make their home on a farm west of Arcadia after a short wedding trip.

United in marriage on March 28, 2:30 p.m., in the Methodist church in Ord were Miss Evelyn Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Thompson, Amelia, and James J. Holmes, Arcadia, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Holmes, Olympia, Washington.

The single ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Martin. The bride wore a beige lace street length dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of red roses.

Mrs. Arthur DeWolf was her sister's matron of honor. She wore an embroidered lavender street dress with lavender and white accessories and a corsage of red roses. Best man was Gerald Eingshar, Arcadia, friend of the bridegroom. The bridegroom wore a navy blue business suit.

The bride's mother wore a gray dress trimmed in white with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The bride is a teacher in the rural schools of Valley Co. and the bridegroom has been engaged in farming since serving in the army. They will make their home on a farm west of Arcadia after a short wedding trip.
