By Mrs. Mark Hendricks

On March 10th Mrs. Bertha Fullerton celebrated her 87th birthday. Mrs. Fullerton is living with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Roby, since last October when she fell and broke her hip. However, she is still active and gets up into her wheel chair every day with the help of her daughter and a trapeze made by Mr. Roby. Mrs. Fullerton has not let age or illness dampen her spirits where her church work and missions are concerned. She still calls on the ladies to bring her their old sheets, etc., so she can tear them into strips to be sent to the mission fields for bandages. In January a friend asked for her friends to send her cards. She received over 200 cards as a result of this, for which she says, "Thank you," Mrs. Vera Humphrey of Atkinson baked and decorated a lovely birthday cake for her. Two of her granddaughters, Mrs. Kenneth Ness of Artesian, S.D., and Mrs. Maynard Ness of Fulton, S.D., were among the many guests on her birthday.
