

Tomlinson 'Eyes' Top Shot Mark

Highly geared Larry Tomlinson of St. Mary's Academy excited sports fans throughout the state Tuesday when he threw the 12 pound shot 55 feet and 4 inches. The St. Mary senior just missed the state record of 57 feet and 4 inches as he led his team to victory at the Sand Hills relays in Bassett.

The heave broke the previous Relays record of 51 feet 1 1/2 inches set in 1949 by George Whitton who was on the St. Joe of Atkinson track squad.

Coach Don Tempelmeyer told a Frontier reporter that he expected Tomlinson to break the state record before the season was over. "If conditions are right, I see no reason why he couldn't," he said.

Last week Tempelmeyer pointed out that each time Tomlinson has been in competition he has bettered his own mark by at least a foot.

Area and state sports writers have also predicted that Tomlinson would soon hold the state shot put record for high school athletes.

They're Happy With Less Than You Think...

Whoopee!

Take any little O'Neill kid with a patch in the middle of his pants and a gleam in the middle of his eye.

Let the weather be fair—a cool 70 degrees will do—and give him a beat-up baseball bat and a broken-down glove his brother wore out three years ago.

Slap down three gunny sacks and the end of a crate.

Rattle up an old ball—so what if the cover's oil.

Cry the cry of Yankee Stadium or any little sandlot square in any little village from Lynch to Los Angeles. When you holler "play ball!" make like you mean it.

When you tell the kid he's out, make like you mean that too.

And when you've done it, you've done more than the building of a better future O'Neill citizen.

Here's what you have done: You've made that patched pants kid happy.

You know it when he leaps high in the air when his team just scores—so what if the run walked in.

You know it when he throws his glove high in the air just after his buddy hits a home-run—so what if it was really the shortstop's error.

You know it the way he drags his way home after a defeat—or a win—and says "Mom, I'm tired."

You know it the way he shows up the next day—win or lose—and says, "Coach, how about letting me pitch today?"

And if you don't believe it, just ask a few of these O'Neill men who coach the little league and pee wee teams:

Joe Ollendick, manager of the midgets and Junior Legion teams, Fred Appleby, Jerry Schmidt, Clyde McKenzie, Father Duffy, Francis Gilg and Jim Holsclaw, managers of the Pee Wees.
