Carl, Williamson Wed
at St. Peter's in Ewing
Miss Ruby Carl, daughter of Delbert Carl and Mrs. Adeline Ruroede, Ewing, and Richard Williamson, of Mrs. and Mrs. Elmer Williamson Orchard were united in marriage April 3 at St. Peter's Catholic Church in Ewing.

The Rev. P. F. Burke officiated at the 2 p.m. double ring ceremony. Miss Saron Kropp was organist and the youth choir sang.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street-length gown of pastel lavender, fashioned in a princess style design and wore a white hat. Her bouquet was of white carnations accented with tufts of green nylon net.

Miss Janet Noffke and Larry Williamson, brother of the bridegroom, attended the couple. A reception followed the ceremony at the bride's father's home. Miss Kay Depew, Neligh, cut and served the cake. Mrs. Ed Urban, Mrs. Julian Schmidt and Mrs. Robert Pruden assisted with the serving.

The bridegroom is a student at Omaha Commercial college. The couple returned home Monday from a wedding trip.

Grand Island Is Scene of Vandersnick, Burns Exchange of Vows
Arrangements of deep rose carnations and salal formed the altar decor for the April 4 wedding of Marie Burns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Burns, Grand Island, and Donald Vandersnick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Vandersnick, Ewing, in St. Mary's Cathedral, Grand Island.

The Rev. Leo Keating officiated the double ring ceremony and celebrated the nuptial mass. Organ music was furnished by Mrs. Peggy Tribby and Lucy Belle Simon was vocalist.

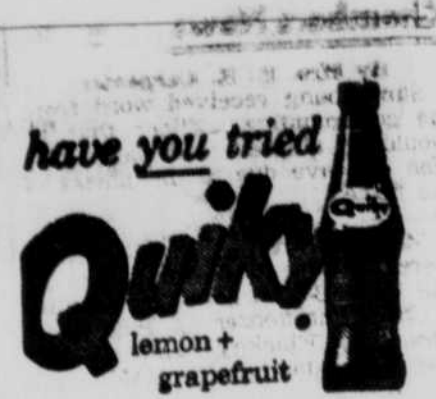

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a tulle and lace floor length gown with a V neckline. The full skirt, garlanded with insertions of lace, swept into a chapel train. A tiara of seed pearls held her finger-tip veil. She carried a bouquet of happiness and red garnet roses with pearl accents.

Miss Eulalia Burns, maid of honor, wore a lilac ballerina length gown and carried a bouquet of orchid beauty carnations. Lawrence Goscha, Clearwater, was best man and ushers were Louis Vandersnick and Harold Burns. Acolytes for the mass were Patrick and Michael Ryan.

Mother of the bridegroom wore a gown of navy blue with a corsage of French white carnations. Following the ceremony a dinner was served at the Hotel Palmer for 50 guests. A reception was held at 2:30 p.m. at the hotel.

Elaine, to Bob H. Beelaert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beelaert of Page. Miss Dobrovolsky lives on a ranch with her parents southwest of Atkinson. Mr. Beelaert is a graduate of the Page high school and is in partnership with his father on a ranch southeast of Page. A June wedding is planned.

It was a big day Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. Sam Schoberg, farmers in the Lynch area for many years, as they celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. Although the actual date of their wedding occurred several weeks ago, the celebration was postponed until Sam returned home from the hospital. Friends and relatives met at the Tom Schoberg home in O'Neill. The wedding cake was baked by Mrs. Wilmar Kaup of Stuart and was decorated by Connie Caufel of Stuart. Dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Schoberg, Mary, Jim, Tommy, and Kathleen, all of Sioux City; Mrs. John Cassidy, Mrs. Osele Murray and Mrs. Agnes Kopecky, all of Spencer. Afternoon guests were Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Kaup, Mr. and Mrs. D. Myers and family of Stuart and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Renze and Jim of O'Neill.
