Of the Sandhills Finest Calves and Light Yearlings
Sell at Auction — Atkinson, Nebraska
TUESDAY, APRIL 28 — 1 P.M.

1200 to 1400 Choice Angus, Angford and Hereford Calves from the family ranches of Charley W. Peterson. Almost all of which have originated from the Peterson cows or have had the Peterson bulls in the breeding herd.

150 Fancy Angus and Black Whiteface Steer and Heifer Calves. Average weights 350 lbs. These are the extreme light end of the original string of calves Charley sold in the January 27 sale.

60 Fancy Angus Yearling Heifers, replacement quality, wts. 525 lbs.

200 Angus and Black Whiteface Mixed Calves from the Willis Peterson Ranch—Here the weights range from 350 to 450 lbs. Green calves with perhaps more quality than any other Blacks of the day.

330 Choice to Fancy Hereford Calves from the Fred Horne Ranch. Weights 375 to 500 lbs. About half steers and half heifers—these were the top selling Herefords in last spring's Lazy F Sale, and are better this year.

275 Choice to Fancy Hereford Calves from the Vera (Peterson) Paddock Ranch—Strictly green hay fed cattle, weights 300 to 450 lbs. All carry the VP brand—you'll like the quality here.

40 Head of Fancy Fall Calves from the Albert Sterns & Son herd, weights 375 lbs.

36 Head of Light Yearling Hereford Steers from Rock County, wts. 575 lbs.

Lester and Earl Stewart complete the offering with 85 fancy Hereford heifer calves, wts. 400 lbs. Replacement quality heifers from one of the better known Rock County herds, Earl has consigned 50 steers and heifers, wts. 450 to 475 lbs. From Ernie Weller's Em-Fran Ranches come 75 fancy Angford calves. Steers and heifers from one of the best cow herds in the country. Also 60 fleshy Hereford feeding heifers, wts. 625 lbs. Other consignors of less than carload lots include, Schrunk, Killmurry, Miller, Weller, Frickel and others. In addition we will have 300 head of mixed consignments. Don't miss this Special Sale—it might be our last until the fall runs. For further information phone us collect anytime, phone 5141.
