

By Mrs. Mark Hendricks

CELIA—One of the oldest landmarks in this community is moving to a new location.

What is known as the Alex Forsyth home, owned by Charley Havens, was constructed 40 years ago. Some of the renters who lived there were Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Cone, now living in O'Neil, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ries, now living south of Atkinson and the late Alex Forsyth.

Mr. Forsyth moved to the farm 18 years ago and operated it in partnership with Mr. Bill Gross. Later the partnership was dissolved and Mr. Forsyth continued to live there alone. He died about a year ago and the property was purchased by Duane Beck of the Celia community in December.
