pital in Omaha spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guais Wintermote.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sprandle of Plymouth came Saturday to visit his grandfather, John Walter, sr., his aunt, Mrs. Rena Deirking, and the C. V. Robertson, Elwyn Robertson and A. A. Walter families. They returned home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. LaMoyné Johnson and baby daughter of Arnold came Friday evening and visited until Sunday with the Clarence Damme family and with other old friends and neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hoerie spent Saturday night with the Ruben Peltzers.

Mrs. C. E. Tibbets and Mrs. Genevieve Bell, who have spent the winter in Tucson, Ariz., arrived home Sunday. Jack Alderson, of Tucson came with them to do the driving, due to a slight heart attack which Mrs. Tibbets suffered several weeks ago. He will visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Alderson. This is his first visit in the 4 1/2 years since the family moved from the Chambers community.

Mrs. John Honeywell and Mrs. Anna Alberts left April 23 for Omaha for a week's visit, the former with her sister, Mrs. Joseph Sinkle, and the latter with a friend, Mrs. Anne Sullivan.

Cecil Thornton was a patient in St. Anthony's hospital in O'Neill last week. He came home Sunday.

Arthur Fluckey was taken to St. Anthony's hospital April 23 for medical care.

Guests Sunday in the Elwyn Robertson home were Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spann and Mrs. Paul Roth of Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Robertson and children of O'Neill, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sprandle of Plymouth. The occasion was in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. C. V. Robertson.

Mrs. Vernon Whitaker went to Ord Saturday to spend a few days with her mother, Mrs. Hattie Richardson, and her brothers, Clint and Raymond.

The Prairie Wranglers 4-H Club met at the Vernon Whitaker home April 17. Troy Westover of Burwell was present to show pictures he had taken in Germany, Switzerland, England and Ireland, while he was stationed over seas.

Clifford Campbell went to St. Joseph hospital April 18 for care of a neck injury. He is expected home in a few days.

Mrs. Bruce Grimes returned home Monday from St. Anthony's hospital in O'Neill where she had been a patient for a week.

Mrs. Myrtle Thorin and daughter, Beverly of Neligh were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wintermote and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Gillette

and grandson, Kirk Gillette, of Belle Fourch, S.D., came Saturday to visit his father, Cliff Gillette and Mrs. Gillette. Also his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Gillette and Darrel Lee.

Rev. Charles Cox received word April 17 of the death of his only sister, Mrs. W. H. McKern of Sioux Falls, S.D. Rev. Cox and sons, Charles, jr. and Billy drove to Sioux Falls April 22 to attend the funeral.

Family night was held Sunday evening at the Methodist church with the program consisting of slides shown by Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Holcomb of their vacation trips in the Colorado Rockies.

Lunch was served following the program and a social hour spent. The American legion auxiliary of unit 320 will observe Poppy Day Saturday, May 9th throughout the day and evening. Remember to honor the dead and cheer the living heroes of the three wars on this day by wearing a poppy, which is their flower. The little red blossoms cover the soil of France, and Belgium beneath which many lie. On poppy day we place the flower over our hearts in memory of the great sacrifice they made for our country. They helped you now you help them—wear a Poppy—help a Vet.

The woman's Society of Christian Service met Thursday p.m. April 23rd at the Methodist Church.

The president Mrs. T. E. Newhouse conducted the business session. The treasurer, Mrs. A. B. Hubbard read a letter from the district treasurer telling of the work of the society around the world and asked for a pledge of $353 for the coming year. It was voted to accept the pledge.

The Society also voted to pay $15.00 on the salaries of three Nebraska Methodist missionaries and to buy some Bibles for the Sunday school as a result of the recent study on Isaiah.

Mrs. Lavern Hoerie told the group of a nursery shower which the young adults are sponsoring. Gifts are to be soft noiseless toys.

Plans were made for a tea honoring those whose birthdays occur in April, May and June, also for a pledge service at the next meeting May 7.

Mrs. Lloyd Gleed presented the 3rd session of the study of Isaiah. Lunch was served by the hostesses Mrs. John Kellar and Mrs. Charles Spann.

Derickson are enjoying television since they have their R.E.A. connected up.
