By Mrs. Mark Hendricks

On Friday, May 8 Mrs. Dorothy Hoffman and her school held their end of school term picnic. They invited the Celia school pupils to join them.

Games of all kinds were played, such as guessing games in which Mrs. Blanche Rouse and Lela Heiser excelled. A baseball game was started and was going well when a ball missed the hands of the catcher and chose his eye as a landing place, with a lot of misery for that catcher. Oh, yes, who was that unlucky fellow? Roger Hoffman. Well! anyway he can prove he was a real sport and tried.

Another interesting time at the picnic was when attendance Mrs. Hoffman present Vanita Schwindt with a gift for perfect attendance this past year. And since gifts seemed to be in order the mothers of the pupils showered Mrs. Hoffman with them in honor of her birthday. On Monday they had brought ice cream, cake and koolade to school and treated all in honor of the event.
