Glen White Elected To Temperance League At O'Neill Meeting

Glen White of Amelia was elected chairman of the Holt county chapter of Temperance League Committee for Alcohol and Narcotics Education Tuesday evening in O'Neill.

Representatives from the churches and communities of Holt County selected White as their chairman at a meeting held at the Assembly of God church after discussing the purpose and plan of such an organization.

Other officers elected were: Mrs. Lucile LaRue of Ewing, co-chairman and secretary, Walter Miller, Ewing, chairman of the Church Committee, Otto Terrell, Page, chairman of the school committee, R. G. R. Rosenkrans, Red Bird, chairman of the public relations committee, and Bennett Gillespie, O'Neill, chairman of the finance committee.

Members of the various committees were: Ernest Johnston, Amelia, and Ervin Carpenter, Chambers, on the Church Committee; Merwyn French, Page, and Clyde Vidman, Amelia, on the School Committee; Ernest Norwood, and Harvey Tompkins, on the Public Relations Committee, and Evan Garwood, Atkinson, and Donald Moss, Stuart, on the Finance Committee.

A goal of 1967 was set for the county to carry on the program. The executive committee will meet June 3 to outline the final details of the program to be instituted this fall.

Dr. John F. Norman, state director of the Temperance League, and Rev. Jim Sloan, the associate director were present to aid the meeting. All churches in the county interested in the work of the county organization are entitled to have representatives on the committees. The names of such representatives should be sent to Glen White, Amelia.
